West Asks Russia for Ban On Nuclear Weapons, Except Defense Purposes

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Western Allies asked Russia today to agree to a ban on nuclear weapons, except for defense purposes, as part of a "package" first step disarmament plan.

The Western plan was made public simultaneously here and in London, where it was handed to the Russians.

It wrapped up previous Allied proposals for halting nuclear bomb testing, stopping production of nuclear bomb materials, reducing dangers of surprise attack and reducing the world's major armed forces and armed supplies.

The United States immediately issued a separate appeal to the Soviet Union to accept the plan as a "practical, workable" way to start on the problem of world disarmament.

Outlook Is Dim

The Western Allies earnestly hope the Soviet Union will give full consideration to this far-reaching proposal," the State Department said. "Soviet acceptance will enable a start to be made toward removing the terrible dangers of nuclear war that hang over the whole world."

Outlook for Soviet acceptance of the Western plan, was regarded as extremely dim. Only Wednesday, President Eisenhower expressed deep disappointment that the Soviet Union was using "scornful words" and making "boastful statements" even before the Allied plan was presented in London.

Eisenhower warned that hasty Soviet rejection of the Western proposals "could condemn humanity to an indefinite future of immeasurable danger." He went on to say that the United States, for its part, would continue its efforts to seek a just and lasting peace.

Most of the provisions in the Western "package" had been outlined orally previously in London. Russia had rejected the key points.

Besides wrapping up its previously disclosed proposals, the West's "working paper" had an important new provision.

The plan calls for signatories to a first step arms agreement to agree "not to use nuclear weapons" unless an armed attack requires counter-defensive action. This is in line with Article 51 of the United Nations Charter which provides for individual or collective self defense.

A related new proposal would permit the transfer of nuclear weapons as part of an agreement to use them only for defensive purposes.

Approve Unit School District At Galatia

A Community Unit School district, that will include Galatia township and parts of Brushy, Tate and Long Branch townships, was approved by voters Wednesday, 401 to 195.

For the unit district to be approved, it had to receive a favorable vote in both the urban and rural areas.

C. R. Gardner, Saline County Superintendent of Schools, reports the following vote: Precinct 1, within the Galatia village limits, 210 in favor, 68 against, 1 spoiled ballot;

Precinct No. 2, Brushy township, 101 in favor, 97 opposed, 1 spoiled ballot;

Precinct No. 3, Tate township, 57 in favor, 24 opposed, 1 spoiled ballot;

Precinct No. 4, Long Branch township, 33 in favor, 6 opposed.

The rural area of Galatia township was divided so that patrons would vote at the township polling place nearest their residence.

The unit is effective now, Mr. Gardner said, as the election was held prior to the beginning of the school term.

The next step in organizing the unit district is to elect a seven-member Board of Education and the election must be called within 30 days, Mr. Gardner stated this morning.

The state law covering a school district of this size states that not more than "ree members of the Board of Education may be chosen from any one township."

Schools in the district are the Galatia high and grade schools, and Harco and Holmes schools in Brushy township.

Mr. Wason is survived by his stepdaughter, Mildred Rose Doo-ley, and his brothers, Lloyd Wason and Carl Wason of Harrisburg and Earl "Pete" Wason of Granite City. Two brothers and three sisters preceded him in death, the latest being Mrs. Cora Wason Harris, who died nine years ago.

The body will lie in state at the Gaskins funeral home and funeral arrangements will be announced later.

Probe Ship Sinking That Killed 94

BUENOS AIRES (AP) — Crewmen of the U. S. freighter Mormacsurf were held incommunicado aboard their ship here today pending investigation of a collision-sinking that killed an estimated 94 Argentines.

The sinking of a riverboat, City of Buenos Aires, in the Plate Estuary Tuesday night may prove to be the worst marine tragedy in Argentine history.

Capt. Silverio Brizuela went down with his riverboat. Reports that he blew out his brains as the boat was sinking could not be confirmed immediately.

Crewmen of the American freighter were seized when the ship docked here late Wednesday, about 18 hours after the collision. Capt. Kenneth Sommers, of San Francisco, was hustled off to Coast Guard headquarters for questioning by Federal Judge Miguel del Castillo.

The Mormacsurf, outward bound from Rosario with a cargo of Argentine grain, and the river boat collided about 11 p. m. Tuesday near the point where the Parana and Uruguay rivers flow together to form the estuary.

Death Takes Hugh Wason

Former Deputy Marshal Lived Here Since 1895

Hugh F. Wason, 70, 307 East Logan street, Harrisburg, died in the Harrisburg hospital at 2:25 a. m. today of a cerebral hemorrhage. He had entered the hospital, Monday night.

Son of A. R. and Mary Wason, he was born in Pope county Sept. 7, 1886, and was married to the former Miss Maud Hicks in 1926, who preceded him in death ten years ago. He had been a resident of the Harrisburg community since 1895. Retired, he had served three terms as a deputy U. S. marshal. He was a member of the Big Saline Baptist church.

Mr. Wason is survived by his stepdaughter, Mildred Rose Doo-ley, and his brothers, Lloyd Wason and Carl Wason of Harrisburg and Earl "Pete" Wason of Granite City. Two brothers and three sisters preceded him in death, the latest being Mrs. Cora Wason Harris, who died nine years ago.

'Good Suspects' Reported in Torso Slaying

Will Definitely Solve Murder, Says Detective Chief

CHICAGO (AP) — Police today investigated a number of "good suspects" in the gruesome slaying of Judith Mae Andersen, 15, whose butchered body was found stuffed in oil drums.

"This is one (slaying) that is going to be solved — definitely," said Lt. Michael Spiotto, head of the detective bureau.

The names of the suspects, which were not disclosed, were obtained Wednesday night during lie detector tests on Elena Abbatocola, 15, the victim's closest friend, and four of Elena's brothers.

Elena is the last known person to have seen Judith Mae alive. The two girls had spent the evening of Aug. 16 watching television until about 11:15 p. m. at the Abbatocola apartment when Judith Mae left for home and disappeared.

Her torso was found last Thursday in an oil drum floating in Lake Michigan. Her arms, hands and head were found in a second oil container in the lake three days later.

Authorities said Elena and her brothers took the lie tests voluntarily to clear up discrepancies and to establish they were not hiding any information about the case.

The tests "cleared" Elena and three of her brothers, Nickolas, 18; John, 26, and Leo, 30, police said. The results on the fourth brother, Joseph, 28, were "inconclusive," but police emphasized he was not a suspect. Joseph will be given another test today, they said.

Sgt. Thomas Mulvey, head of a special investigating unit, said the persons named by Elena were under surveillance and did not know they are being watched.

Find Stolen Tomb Stone Near Town

Chief of Police Ross Lane stated this morning "now I have done everything" and went on to reveal he had recovered a stolen tomb stone.

Wednesday Chief Lane was driving out in the Liberty community to visit his brother when he noticed a large number of Harrisburg street signs and a Top Value stamp sign under a large tree on the blacktop road, west of the cemetery.

Further investigation revealed a 200-pound tomb stone in the weeds along the road.

Chief Lane contacted Sheriff William Barrett, who had earlier been notified by the Simpson Monument Works, Eldorado, that one of their stones was missing. Identification was made and the stone returned to Eldorado.

Lane is of the opinion the stone was stolen to be used to add weight to an automobile used in drag racing as the Liberty road is used as a "drag strip."

Anyone giving information leading to the arrest and conviction of the person stealing the tombstone will be liberally rewarded and the name of the one giving the information will not be revealed, Lane declared today.

Mrs. Gladys Hardin Dies Here; Funeral Friday at Rosiclare

Mrs. Gladys Hardin, 50, wife of Loren Hardin, 403 West Lincoln street, Harrisburg, died at the Lightner hospital at 1:30 p. m. Wednesday. She is survived by her husband, Loren Hardin, her mother, Mrs. Dessie McDonald, her brother, Eugene McDonald of Williams, Penn., and her sisters, Mrs. Bertha Kaylor and Mrs. Hallie Bramlet of Harrisburg and Mrs. Myrtle Collins of Tucson, Ariz. She was born in Carversville, Ky., to the late George McDonald and Dessie McDonald, who survive.

The body will lie in state in the chapel of the Harrisburg funeral home and the funeral will be held in the First Baptist church in Rosiclare at 2 p. m. Friday. Burial will be in the Flourine cemetery at Rosiclare.

Craig Rice, Mystery Writer, Dies Suddenly

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Mystery writer Craig Rice died unexpectedly Wednesday night in his apartment, apparently of natural causes. She was 49.

Miss Rice, a native of Chicago, was one of the best known contemporary "whodunit" authors. She was stricken while entertaining several friends. She fell to the floor and was dead when police arrived.

Beck's Income Tax Trial Next Year, Probably

Charge He Evaded Paying $240,000 Over Four Years

TACOMA, Wash. (AP) — Dave Beck, international president of the Teamsters Union, probably will go on trial here early next year on two charges of evading some $240,000 in federal income tax over a four-year period.

The portly union leader was charged Wednesday by a federal grand jury with failure to report $254,000 in income calling for $184,000 in taxes during the period 1951-53. His son, Dave Beck Jr., and four others also were indicted.

It was expected this charge would be consolidated with another handed last May 2 by the same jury accusing Beck of evading $56,000 in taxes for 1950.

Indicted with Beck and his son were Norman Gessert, general organizer for the union; Fred Verschueren Sr., the union's auditor; Nathan Shefferman, a Chicago labor relations consultant, and Shefferman's son, Shelton.

The men are scheduled for arraignment before Federal District Judge John C. Bowen Sept. 12. Beck's bond was set at $25,000 with $5,000 for the other defendants.

Beck, in Los Angeles for a meeting of the Teamsters' Executive Board, said he was "not surprised" at the indictment, "but I certainly am not guilty."

"I never made out my own income tax. I hired public accountants to do it. If mistakes were made, they made them," he said.

Kefauver Rips Hike by U. S. Steel

WASHINGTON (AP) — Sen. Estes Kefauver today attacked U. S. Steel Corp. for hiking its steel price $6 a ton with the knowledge that its "so-called competitors" would follow the lead.

Kefauver said concentration of control in the steel industry is increasing.

The Tennessee Democrat, chairman of the Senate Antitrust and Monopoly subcommittee, told the Senate in a prepared speech that "the whole matter of costs and prices requires further investigation." This committee has been looking into the steel price hike for several weeks.

Kefauver accused U. S. Steel of refusing to give the subcommittee a breakdown of its cost figures despite a promise that the figures of no single steel firm would be disclosed.

However, he said, "it is obvious" that there is a substantial "gap" between the company's July $6 a ton price increase and the amount by which its wage costs increased.

Bike, Auto Collide, David Hauptmann, 10, Suffers Injuries

David Hauptmann, 10-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Tom Hauptmann, is a patient at Lightner hospital receiving treatment for injuries received Wednesday in an automobile-bicycle collision.

An automobile, driven by Mrs. Clyde Wilmoth and bicycle ridden by young Hauptmann collided at the intersection of alleys running north and south between Granger and McKinley and east and west between Poplar and Church streets.

Mrs. Wilmoth was driving north and David riding west at the time of the accident, Policeman Pat Atkinson, who made the investigation, reported.

David received a compound fracture of the right arm, near the wrist, and facial and arm burns.

Labor Day Celebration Here to Feature Blackwood Brothers

A big program of gospel singing is scheduled for the Saline County Fairgrounds on Labor Day evening. This will be the regular Labor Day program, sponsored annually in Saline county by the Trades and Labor Council and business and professional men of the county.

In years past the Labor Day program has been an all-day affair, however this year's program is strictly an evening show, starting about 7 p. m. and continuing until midnight.

Three gospel singing groups, headed by the Blackwood Brothers quartet of Memphis, Tenn., will appear on the platform in front of the grandstand.

Also on the program will be the Klaudd Gospel Family and The Melody Makers of St. Louis.

The Blackwood Bros. quartet is probably America's most famous gospel quartet. Organized in 1934 they have been singing ever since, having travelled from coast to coast and from Canada to Mexico. James Blackwood, versatile emcee and lead singer of the group, has without a doubt travelled more miles than other men in the gospel field.

The Blackwood Brothers have had many national honors, having appeared on all major networks coast to coast but perhaps their greatest achievement was being the first gospel quartet to appear on one of the top television network programs. In June, 1954, they appeared on the combined CBS television and radio network.

The song used by the Blackwood Brothers on the Godfrey Show, "The Man Upstairs," was their

Filibuster by Sen. Thurmond Occupying Day

Has Talked Since Last Night Against Civil Rights Bill

By JAMES BAAR

United Press Staff Correspondent
WASHINGTON (AP) — Senate Republican Leader William F. Knowland predicted today that Congress may be able to finish up its work and adjourn tonight.

Knowland made the prediction to President Eisenhower during a conference at the White House.

It was based on a belief by Knowland that the one-man filibuster in the Senate by Sen. Strom Thurmond (D-S. C.) against the compromise civil rights bill would peter out and that other Southerners would not join in the talkathon.

Thurmond took the Senate floor at 8:34 p. m. Wednesday. He was still talking at 3 o'clock this morning—17 hours later.

Knowland's prediction also assumed that Senate and House would give quick approval to the compromise foreign aid bill, the only piece of major legislation besides civil rights still blocking adjournment.

The House already has passed the rights bill and was scheduled to take up the aid bill today.

The compromise aid bill totaled $2,768,760,000—600 million less than Eisenhower had pleaded for.

House-Senate conferees reached the compromise late Wednesday. The final figure was 244 million dollars more than the House had voted; 257 million less than the Senate voted.

Other high points in the adjournment rush:

PROXIMITY: Sen.-elect William Proxmire (D-Wis.) stood on the Senate floor Wednesday night less than 24 hours after his upset victory. But GOP opposition blocked swearing him in until later today, when he took his oath of office.

FBI FILES: House-Senate conferees called a meeting to reach a compromise on legislation aimed at protecting the FBI files in criminal trials. The House's bill is supported by the administration. The Senate bill is weaker.

IMMIGRATION: The House sent its so-called hardship immigration bill to the Senate for approval of technical amendments. The Senate already has passed a similar bill. Both would open American shores to more than 60,000 more aliens in the next two years.

Adjournment fever was running high. Congressmen were buying tickets for home—and for Paris, Rome and the Orient. A boom year for congressional junketing appeared in prospect.

House GOP Leader Joseph W. Martin Jr. said on the House floor in granting travel permission to four committees for study trips abroad:

"Do you think that we could raise a quorum in Paris?"

Death Ends 71 Years of Marriage at Golconda

Mrs. Alice Rondeau, 88, wife of Jeff Rondeau, died at 6:30 p. m. Wednesday, in her home at Golconda. The body is in the care of the Hoffman funeral chapel of Golconda where funeral plans are incomplete.

Governor Wm. G. Stratton had sent a letter of congratulation to Mr. and Mrs. Rondeau earlier this year on the occasion of their 71st wedding anniversary celebration.

The WASHINGTON MERRY-GO-ROUND by DREW PEARSON

DREW PEARSON Says:
Sen. Margaret Chase Smith of Maine Shoves The Brass Hats Around; She Blocks The Promotion Of Unqualified Reserve Officers; She Won't Permit Gen. Rosie O'Donnell To Change His Testimony.

WASHINGTON — Senator Margaret Chase Smith of Maine, only lady senator, has now won her battle with the Air Force.

She has blocked the promotion of Air Force glamor boy Jimmy Stewart, who played the part of Lindbergh in the "Spirit of St.
Louis" to be a brigadier general.
She also blocked the promotion of John Montgomery, vice president of General Electric.

How she did it is a little-known story of one lady, plus a determined assistant against the brass hats.

The backstage battle got rough at times. Air Force propagandists accused Mrs. Smith's assistant, Bill Lewis, of holding up other promotions because he was not promoted himself. They also put out stories that Mrs. Smith was irked because she wanted to be commander of the WAFFS in time of war and the Air Force turned her down.

It was also intimated that Mrs.
Smith wanted to extend her own reserve commission as a colonel in the WAFFS, which expires automatically December 14 when she reaches the age of 60—first, because she didn't want her age known, and second, because she wanted continuing reservist pay.
This was obviously erroneous because Mrs. Smith has made no secret about her age, spells it out in Who's Who for everyone to read.

Real fact is, that Senator Smith is the author of the Reserve Personnel Act, contends past wars have been won 90 per cent by the reserves, that their training in peacetime must be thorough.

MRS. SMITH DIGS
So when the Air Force recommended eleven officers for promotion for brigadier or major generals, Mrs. Smith discovered they included big-shot executives who hadn't handled an airplane for years. She and her assistant did what the Senate Foreign Relations Committee has not done with ambassadors, such as Maxwell Gluck. She dug into the background of every officer.

In doing so, she caught the head of Air Force Personnel, Lt. Gen.
Emmett "Rosie" O'Donnell in many misstatements of facts and cracked down on him for wanting to change 43 of the 49 pages of testimony in answer to Mrs. Smith:
five of six pages in answer to Senator Stennis of Mississippi; three out of three pages in answer to Senator Barrett of Wyoming; and two out of four pages in answer to Chairman Russell of Georgia.

Mrs. Smith sent the testimony back telling O'Donnell to confine himself to editing for grammar, not change his answers.

During the course of the testimony, General O'Donnell bragged that he had kicked 68,000 men out of the reserves because their training wasn't good enough.

"In view of this severity," queried Senator Smith, "why are you promoting Brig. Gen. Robert L.
Smith, whose record isn't good enough either?"

LYNDON'S FRIEND
She referred to the good friend of Senator Lyndon Johnson of Texas who is president of Pioneer Air Lines of Dallas. He had only one 15-day tour of duty in eight years. Mrs. Smith pointed out, in direct violation of Air Force Reserve requirements, General O' Donnell, however, tried to show that Mrs. Smith was wrong.

"Senator Smith," he flared,
"General Smith was on duty December 10 to December 31, 1956."
"I don't see that on the records supplied by the Air Force," commented Margaret.

"December 10 to December 31," emphasized O'Donnell with great vigor, implying that the lady senator didn't know what she was talking about.

She did. He didn't. When the transcript of O'Donnell's testimony came back, he had deleted his answers. Mrs. Smith refused to allow the deletion.

Mrs. Smith pressed O'Donnell to explain the double standard for reserves which fired 68,000 reservists but promoted an airline executive despite his lazy training record. He replied:

"Well, even though he hasn't so many points, he is in the airline business."

Note—As a courtesy to Lyndon Johnson, Smith's promotion was finally okayed by the Armed Services Committee.

HELPED HIS TAXES
Senator Smith also pointed out that John Alston of Northrup Aircraft had not done a single 15-day tour of duty in nine years. However, he was finally okayed for promotion.

Not so another business executive, J. B. Montgomery, who retired from the Air Force as a temporary major general to take a lush salary with American Airlines, but who now wants to come back into the Air Force as a reserve officer, thereby drawing double pay.

Mrs. Smith did some digging, found this would be a bonanza to Colonel Montgomery income tax-wise; that this was why he hadn't taken his regular retirement pay when he left the Air Force.

Montgomery, now with General Electric, is one of a growing group of officers who get out of the regular service to take jobs in big business, then draw double pay—retirement or reserve benefits—from the government plus salaries from private business.

Mrs. Smith won. Montgomery was denied his promotion.
When actor Jimmy Stewart's name came before the committee, Senator Smith showed that in 11 years as a reservist he had taken only one 15-day tour of duty; this only last year just before he was to come up for promotion.

Despite this zero training record, he had been given a mobilization assignment as deputy director of operations for the Strategic Air Command which requires expert knowledge.

"Is it true that Colonel Stewart has had 18 hours as first pilot of a B-27?" asked Senator Smith, referring to an inspired Air Force story.

"No," replied General O'Donnell.

"Just what aircraft in the Air Force is Colonel Stewart now current and authorized to fly as a first pilot?" pressed Senator Smith.

"None," replied O'Donnell.
Jimmy Stewart was not promoted.

Moral: It doesn't pay to argue with a lady.

land in trust for American Indians, tannica.

S. D. Trees

HURON, S. D. — (UP)—Woodland conservationist A. L. Ford says more than 6,000 acres of trees are planned for planting on the prairie lands of South Dakota this year. Had growing conditions been better in 1956, Ford said, tree planting could have been increased by 20 to 25 per cent this year. But adverse weather cut the supply of high quality, acclimated nursery stock in 1956.

The leaves of the acanthus plant were the inspiration for the heads, or capitals, of Corinthian columns in Greek architecture. The Romans preferred the wider, blunt-pointed acanthus, known as brankursine, or bear's-breech. The pattern of the acanthus leaf was used in early Christian, Byzantine and Romanesque architecture, and later by the French.

Legion Auxiliary Installation Held Tuesday Evening

The American Legion Auxiliary of the George Hart Post Unit 167 held its regular meeting in the Auxiliary Hall, Tuesday a 7:30 p. m.

The ceremony for the installation of the newly elected officers for the 1957-1958 year was held. The Auxiliary was honored to have Mrs. Helen Vansaghi, of Herrin, 5th Division President, for the installing officer. The following officers were installed: Mrs. George (Dolly) Johnson, president; Mrs. Lowell (Thelma) Hill, 1st vice-president; Mrs. J. Frank (Edyth) Parker, 2nd vice-president; Mrs. Freda Keltner, chaplain; Mrs. J. D. (Virginia) Stanley, historian; Mrs. J. Frank (Edyth) Parker, secretary; Mrs. John (Marian) Humm, treasurer; and Mrs. Denzil (Wilma) Simpson, sergeant at arms.

The installation was held before a beautifully draped laced covered table, with a floral center piece in keeping with the colors of the American Legion Auxiliary.

Mrs. Helen Vansaghi presented Mrs. Ruth Rankin, Junior Past President, with a past President's pin.

A beautiful gift was presented to Mrs. Rankin from the officers of the Auxiliary.

After the installation Mrs. Vansaghi was given a gift from the unit. Mrs. Rankin, in gratitude to her officers for the previous year, presented each of them with a beautiful cut glass candy dish.

Mrs. James Gwaltney was especially honored with a gift from both the Past Presidents Parley and American Legion Auxiliary. The Gwaltney family is moving Thursday to make their home in Bloomington, Illinois where Mr. Gwaltney is the State Adjutant for the Department of Illinois, of the American Legion.

After the meeting refreshments

of open faced sandwiches were served, with hostesses Mrs. Freda Keltner and Mrs. Laura Moore, past Presidents of the unit presiding at the punch bowl.

Other guests were Mrs. Dorothy Cobb, of Herrin, who accompanied Mrs. Vansaghi, Mrs. Merritt Kennedy, and Mrs. James Johnson, and members of the American Legion Auxiliary.

All members of the Harrisburg unit will be contacted soon regarding the American Legion Auxiliary membership dues. Those wishing to inquire about their membership dues are asked to call Mrs. Thelma Hill, telephone 1255RX or Mrs. Dolly Johnson.

Calendar Of Meetings

The annual homecoming at Durham cemetery will be held on the second Sunday in September, which is the 8th. The usual basket dinner will be followed by informal entertainment. Everybody is invited.

200 ACRE STOCK
AND GRAIN FARM
My 200 acre farm located 4 miles south of Harrisburg on Route 34, in Pierson community; 175 acres tillable and 140 acres fenced and cross fenced. 100 acres now in corn and 50 acres in permanent pasture. Two modern houses, two good barns, and quonset 30 ft. x 135 ft. used as machine shed or cattle loafing shed. Sufficient wood fence corrals for handling 100 to 150 head of cattle. Part of barn lots are concrete. Two large trench silos 20 ft. x 100 ft. with concrete floors. Two good corn cribs with 3000 bushel capacity.
One of the most beautiful building sites in Southern Illinois on this farm, consisting of 12 acres beautifully landscaped with hundreds of trees including evergreens and good apple orchard. One and one half acre lake stocked with fish. Water supplied from lake to cattle and to barns by automatic water system. Deep drilled well for drinking. Small modern country home on building site. Can easily be enlarged for any size family. If you want a farm and you like to live in the country, you can't help but like this place. Will consider selling building site with or without farm.

Communists Threaten To Deport Youth Touring Red China

PEIPING (UP) — Communist China threatened today to deport Shelby Tucker of Pass Christian, Miss., one of the American youths touring Red China, for refusing to surrender his passport to the Chinese customs.

"I'm in a dilemma," Tucker explained. "I've a choice of violating Chinese law or United States law." He referred to the State Department ban on travel by Americans in Communist China.

As a result, while the 41 other Americans touring the mainland were to leave today for Chang Chun in the heavily industrialized northeast, Tucker was packing his bags for an almost certain 5,600-mile trip back to Moscow.

Backs Disarmament
NEW DELHI (UP) — Prime Minister Jawaharlal Nehru told a parliamentary foreign affairs committee Wednesday Soviet production of an intercontinental ballistic missile and the possibility of Western countries manufacturing still more dangerous weapons has made the need for an immediate disarmament agreement imperative.

Drives Blindfolded Through Intersection To Commit Suicide

CHICAGO (UP) — A widow committed suicide by driving blindfolded across an intersection and smashing into a service station, authorities said Wednesday night.

Police ruled the death of Mrs. Kathryn Dawson, 52, a suicide. They said a note in her wallet gave instructions for cremation of her body.

Witnesses said the woman left a nearby tavern Wednesday and tied a white babushka across her eyes. She drove into an intersection, colliding with a road sign and a traffic light standard before speeding into the station.

The victim's husband died last December and she was reported to be despondent over the death, according to police.

Flees Menard Honor Farm, Captured Near Farm 8 Hours Later

MENARD, Ill. (UP) — A convict who walked away from a tomato-picking detail on the Menard State Prison honor farm Tuesday was captured eight hours later only two miles from the farm.

Charles Smothers, 35, Marion, was scheduled for parole next month. He was sentenced to prison in 1939 on a one-year-to-life term for burglary and larceny.

Prison officials said Smothers was wearing a plaid shirt when he was apprehended without resistance by two prison guards on the Missouri-Pacific railroad bridge over the Kaskaskia River.

Whitneys Move to 302 East Poplar

Robert Whitney, real estate broker and auctioneer who has rented his home in Carrier Mills to Mr. and Mrs. Koster, by whom a new factory is being opened there next month, is now fully established in Harrisburg.

His real estate office with Don Stout as a salesman associate, is in the Wasson building, and his residence is at 302 East Poplar street. Through his real estate transactions in farm, residential and business property, Mr. Whitney has become widely known in this and adjoining counties.

Mr. and Mrs. Whitney have two daughters, one of junior high and the other of grade school age.

Tribune, Sun-Times Boost Prices to 7 Cents

CHICAGO (UP) — The Chicago Sun-Times and the Chicago Tribune today joined the city's two afternoon newspapers in boosting the price of their daily editions from a nickel to seven cents.

The Daily News and the Chicago American earlier this week upped their prices to seven cents.

The Sun-Times and the Tribune, in an announcement today, said the price increase will go into effect next Monday.

The two morning papers blamed higher costs of labor, paper, ink and other production items for the price hike.

Nicaragua is a triangular country of 57,143 square miles, or about the size of Illinois.

Frank E. Riley of Elizabethtown Dies

Frank E. Riley, 68, died at his home in Elizabethtown at 1:15 p. m. Wednesday. The body will lie in state at the home of his sister, Mrs. Clarence McDonald in the Peters creek community of Hardin county. The funeral will be held in the Peters Creek Baptist church at 2 p. m. Saturday with the Rev. Carl Watkins and the church pastor, Rev. Vernon Wasson, officiating. Burial will be in the Peters Creek cemetery.

He is survived by his wife and the sister.

The body is in the care of the Barnett funeral service of Elizabethtown.

Experts to Testify on Missile Program Claims

WASHINGTON (UP) — The administration's experts on American and Russian weapons were called before a congressional committee today to answer claims that the U. S. ballistic missile program has been slowed down.

A subcommittee of the Joint Congressional Committee on Atomic Energy also wanted Defense Department and Central Intelligence Agency evaluations of Russia's claim to have tested successfully an "intercontinental multi-stage ballistic rocket."

Graham Strengthened By New York Crusade

NEW YORK (UP) — Billy Graham said Wednesday night that he included himself among the 53,207 persons who have officially declared themselves spiritually strengthened by his New York crusade.

"I have received revival in my own soul," the evangelist said. "I've been revived myself spiritually by what has happened in New York."

Found Guilty on Shooting Charge

Scott Stone, who chose to stand trial this week after complaints of neighbors that he was shooting an air rifle at the Dorrisville housing project resulted in the filing of a charge, was found guilty in the court of Justice of the Peace Verner E. Joyner. A fine of $16.40 was assessed.

Wants His Job

CHICAGO (UP) — Wayne I. Donahue, 30, postmaster of Huntley in McHenry County and a vice president of the Illinois League of Postmasters, has filed suit in U. S. District Court seeking to set aside his dismissal.

Coroner Says Lightning Killed Man on Tracks

EAST ST. LOUIS, Ill. (UP) — The St. Clair County coroner Wednesday ruled that lightning caused the death of La Pur Horn, whose body was found on a pedestrian's path beside railroad tracks.

Police first believed the victim had been struck by a Baltimore & Ohio train, but an autopsy showed death due to electrical shock.

Hunt Train Bandits

INGERSOLL, Ont. (UP) — Police early today released one suspect held for questioning in the $5,000 robbery of the mail car of a Canadian passenger train. Other arrests were expected as police sought the three masked gunmen who pulled the daring holdup Wednesday. The three gunmen, brandishing pistols and working in Jesse James-style, entered the mail car after the train had left Woodstock en route from Toronto to Windsor.

Virginia colonists imported the first cows to the New World; today's U. S. cow population has grown to 21,000,000 head.

Raleigh Workers 4-H Leaders Recognized

Tuesday was 4-H Leader Recognition Day for Forrest Jones and Charles Miller, leader and junior leader of the Raleigh Workers 4-H club.
Leader Recognition Day is a program sponsored by Robertson's Farm Supply of East St. Louis. Assisting with the program are Ted Manger of radio station KMOX of St. Louis and district 4-H supervisors.
The program consisted of a tour of the Robertson store, a tour of the radio station, tape recordings of interviews with the leaders and a dinner.
The recordings may be heard over station KMOX Sunday, Sept. 22, at 8:45 a. m.
Mr. Jones and Charles were among ten 4-H leaders from Illinois and Missouri honored Tuesday. Participating in the taped interviews were the 4-H leaders, Jack Yates, Saline County 4-H adviser, district supervisors and Mr. Manger and Charles Vosburgh, representing the sponsor. During the interview each leader was presented a gift and each junior leader a certificate of recognition from the farm supply store.
Also making the trip from Saline county were Mrs. Jones and Mrs. Yates.

Menard Prison Guard Charged Accepting Cash from Prisoner

CHESTER, Ill. (AP) — A Menard State Prison guard has been charged with accepting $3 from a prisoner to carry a letter outside the prison.
The guard, William Byrl Leggans, was held in Randolph County jail here after his arrest Monday night. State's Atty. William Schwerk said Leggans, of Blair in Randolph County, has signed a statement saying he took the letter and money.
Warden Ross Randolph said Leggans had been under surveillance for some time. Randolph said the penalty on conviction in such a case would be a fine up to $500 or a year in county jail or both.

$20,000 Dram Shop Suit Filed

SHAWNEETOWN, ILLINOIS — The administrator of the estate of a 17-year-old Harrisburg girl who was fatally injured in an auto crash on August 17, 1956, has filed a $20,000 damage suit in Gallatin County circuit court under the Dram Shop Act.
The plaintiff, Thelma Reeder, mother of the late Barbara Reeder, names Vellie G. Bishop, Sr., and Vellie G. Bishop, Jr., and Joe Acord, Old Shawneetown tavern owners, defendants.
The complaint alleges that the defendants owned and operated dram shops and taverns in Old Shawneetown on August 17, 1956, and they or their agents sold or gave intoxicating liquor to Denzie Osman, and to others, having reasonable grounds to believe that Denzie Osman would drink part or all of the liquor.
It is further alleged that Osman became intoxicated as a result of drinking said liquor and while in intoxicated drove his Pontiac automobile, in which Barbara Reeder was riding, about a mile east of the intersection of State Routes 1 and 13 just west of the B&W coal

The plaintiff states that Barbara Reeder was making substantial contributions toward the support of her mother, brother and two sisters at the time of her death.

OLD FAITHFUL—"Blackie," faithful pal of Wichita, Kan., letter carrier Pete Chavez, isn't going to let the age of mechanization keep him from making his appointed rounds, just as he always has in the past. The little dog, pet of the Allen Smith family, took a liking to Chavez and every morning he joins the mailman and accompanies him on his entire route. At left is the way it used to be. Right, Blackie adjusts to the three-wheeled mailster, now being used in Wichita.

The story: While Marshal Harney Blanchard and Pike Ambrose watch the railroad station, Cole Jethroe drives into Blue Springs in a buggy. Cole's arrival may set off violence centering on Pete Dorsey, who was kidnapped from Harney's custody.

XVI

The ferry moved away from the south bank, coming back, and I decided I'd better keep away from Nev. Hawk. I veered Pilot west and headed for the ford. Near the water I pulled Pilot down and let him pick his way through the rocks. He knew that ford, didn't like it. On the other bank I spurred him to a good run to make sure I didn't lose Crone. Topping a rise, I saw Crone and the two horses black against the gray sweep of prairie.

When I hit the river bank I stopped and let Crone pull well ahead. There was still room between the road and the river but not enough to suit me. All I wanted was to see where Crone was going. If the moon held, I could do that safer some distance back. There was a black spot on the prairie well to the east of the road. I stared at it for a time and decided it was horse and rider, either not moving or just easing along. I wondered what a rider would be doing over there so late at night. Likely he was thinking the same about me and Birch Crone. I moved out again and started worrying about what I'd do when I hit the Clements' cabins. I considered pulling off to the east of the road. I thought about that rider over there and decided not to. Just too many folks out on the prairie for the middle of the night. It didn't suit me at all.

Pulling out of a dip I saw the buildings on the Clement place. Crone was still 200 yards away from the turnoff and I wanted to see what he'd do. If he went past I was wrong. If he turned in I had a chance to be right.

Crone turned into Clements' yard. When I saw him do it I nudged Pilot off the rise and started to move to the back. Then I wheeled him and came back to the rise. I could watch the cabins better from there.

I could see light in one and got down and went inside. I waited for what seemed like a long time before Crone came out and somebody else, too. I couldn't tell who the second one was. They moved around the horse for a time, loading boxes. Then Crone got back on the pinto and pulled out of the yard, trailing the pack horse.

I headed for the road at a good clip and crossed it and angled east until I hit a creek bottom that I knew would take me past the cabins. Pilot was noisy in the rocks on the bottom so I held him up and let him pick his way on sand. I was a half mile closer to the rider off to the east. That made it close enough to be careful. I held Pilot to the creek until I judged we'd passed the cabins. Then I pulled him west up the low bank. Coming out of the bottom, I saw Crone back on the road, moving toward the fork that cut into Buffalo Basin.

I started after Crone. If he planned to go clear to the county seat, then I'd follow him there. It seemed like an hour since Crone had left the Clements' place. It could have been that long because he stayed on that road for almost four miles, just single-footing along. If he went another half mile, he'd be south of the breaks and he'd prove me foolish for sure. But he didn't go that half mile. He turned to his right and cut straight for the rocks that were grey lumps to the west. I saw the dark spot of the rider to the east, not far from where I'd seen him before.

I watched Crone disappear into the rocks. I held up a while, then headed for the cut. If he wanted to ambush me, there wasn't much I could do to stop him. I'd been careful; he never gave a sign that he knew I was following. That rider to the east saw me for sure but my being out there didn't seem to bother him.

He still bothered me a little but I didn't see anything I could do about him, not after Crone like I was. At the rocks I held up and decided to lead Pilot through. There weren't any trails and you just picked your way around and over and between rocks of every size and shape. Sometimes you'd hit a washed place and you'd be squeezing through a cut or pulling over a long rock face.

I set off into the rocks, my rifle in one hand. Pilot's reins in the other. I didn't want to stay close to Crone; I just wanted to see him when he pulled up out of the rocks. I thought I knew a place that would help me do it and I headed for it as best I could, getting some help from moonlight on the light sandstone. Then the rocks were all the world around me and it was like that until I'd picked my way through the light and moon shadow to the ledge I was looking for. I let Pilot's reins drop and crawled up a sharp ridge, slipping once and almost falling, trying not to think about the snakes. On the narrow ledge I turned around and looked north and saw the long reach of the ridge rising out of the breaks.

Then I saw the shapes of two horses, with a man leading, pull out into dim light at the edge of the breaks and cut straight for a ravine that showed to me as a darker slash in the sheep grass slope of the south ridge. I knew that ravine. It had at least a dozen caves up in it and I could find every one of them. In daylight I could find them. At night I didn't know.

News from the State Capitol

Illinois ranks first in the nation in the number of deaths and see end in amount of property damage from tornadoes, according to a report from the Illinois State Water Survey, Department of Registration and Education.

Nine hundred and fourteen deaths and approximately $48,705,680 in property damage from 1916-1950 was caused by a total of 184 tornadoes. Tornadoes in Illinois have been particularly destructive because of the density of population.

Rainfall which accompanies tornadoes in Illinois may be heavy, but generally lasts only a short time, according to meteorologists.

Public health officials in Illinois are continuing to watch closely for any mass outbreak of Asiatic influenza in the state. While a few sporadic cases have been reported, to date no serious outbreaks of the disease have been reported in Illinois.

Dr. Roland R. Cross, state health director, will attend a special meeting of State and Territorial Health Officers in Washington August 27 and 28 to assist in nationwide planning for combating a probable fall epidemic of Asiatic flu.

Plans for combating the disease in Illinois are being made from recommendations of a State Advisory Committee on Asiatic influenza which met recently in Chicago. This committee is working closely with the National Committee on Influenza, the U. S. Public Health Service, and the American Medical Association.

Committee Plans Campaign Seminars 'n Scout Districts

The Steering Committee of the Egyptian Council Boy Scouts of America formulated final plans for campaign seminars in each of its seven districts as a meeting held in Marion this week, according to Dave Flota of Harrisburg.

All community chairmen will learn their specific duties in these training meetings which are a part of the planning activities now going on all over the state in the first Illinois state-wide coordinated Boy Scout Campaign. Formal Kick-off of the campaign is scheduled for October 15.

District campaign seminars will be held in the Delta, Nile, Obelisk, Pyramid, Sahara and Sphinx districts during the weeks of Sept. 2 through 13. Representatives of the Egyptian Council Steering Committee will conduct the district training sessions.

Chairman of the State Boy Scout Campaign Committee is Gov. William G. Stratton. Warren Engle, Vice President and head of the Carbondale Branch of the Egyptian Council, is General Campaign Chairman of the Egyptian Council for the campaign which will raise funds for the 1958 budget.

Campaigns will not be put on in communities having United Funds. But Scouting personnel is being organized to aid in the United Funds.

District Campaign leaders for Sahara district are: District campaign chairman, Dave Flota; district Scout committee chairman, T. Leo Doud, Eldorado.

In per capita meat consumption, the United States ranks fifth, behind Uruguay, New Zealand, Argentina, and Australia.

Lady's Red Leather Purse Makes Fine Incubator for Just-Born Raccoon

By DOC QUIGG

United Press Staff Correspondent
NEW YORK — If you ever have to become foster parent to a just-born raccoon—and the way the world is going, you might as well be prepared for anything—here's a helpful tip.

A red leather lady's purse makes a fine incubator.

Also, a doll's baby bottle is just fine for feeding a wee critter that won't take more than half an ounce at a time. A brand new raccoon, by the way, is not much bigger than a mouse and has to be fed every two hours.

These items of pioneering research were gleaned by Mrs. Mary Cafarelli, of the Bronx, who had a two-hour-old raccoon thrust upon her in an emergency and took it home to raise.

Nothing New For Her

She had had some experience previously in being a mama to wild creatures. She had taken to her home, in succession, a baby starling, a month-old woodchuck, and a two-day-old Chinese water deer.

But none posed the problems of the tiny raccoon, which is now doing fine, thank you, and sporting the name of Daisy Crockett II.

Mrs. Cafarelli is an assistant to the Children's Zoo, a little institution that nestles within the immense confines of New York's famous Bronx Zoo.

The newborn raccoon was found in another part of the zoo, apparently deserted by its mother.

Borrowed Pocketbook

Mrs. Cafarelli borrowed a pocketbook — a rather ancient red leather one—from a friend.

She put a hot water bottle, wrapped in cloths, inside and put the raccoon cub, well swaddled, on top of the bottle.

She got some doll baby-bottles from her daughter, mixed a formula of half water and half evaporated milk, and was in business.

The Children's Zoo previously had a raccoon named Daisy Crockett, so the new one has been named Daisy II. It is now two months old and will go into the zoo as soon as it gets a little more stature.

State Merit Exams To Be Offered Sept. 1

SPRINGFIELD — The state Department of Personnel today announced that 42 new merit examinations will be offered job seekers starting Sept. 1.

This will bring the total number of exams being given continuously to 265—the largest number ever offered simultaneously by the state.

The final date to apply for the tests will be Sept. 30, Donald D. McAmis, director of the Personnel Department, reported.

The jobs include a variety of positions. Applications and exam announcements can be obtained from any state employment office, McAmis said.

Kinetic energy is the energy of movement. A moving train, a running horse, a thrown baseball, all exhibit kinetic energy.

IN THE SERVICE

FORT GORDON, Ga. (AHTNC)—Pvt. Marvin B. Horton, son of Mr. and Mrs. Renzo Horton, Route 2, Harrisburg, Ill., recently completed the communications center operation course at the Army's Southeastern Signal School, Fort Gordon, Ga.

The eight-week course trained Horton to receive, process and relay messages by various means of communications.

Horton entered the Army last March and received basic training at Fort Carson, Colo. He is a 1952 graduate of Harrisburg Township high school.

FORT GORDON, Ga. (AHTNC)—Pfc. Jack D. Dale, 20, son of Arthur Dale, Hazel St., Harrisburg, Ill., recently completed the radio teletype operation course at the Army's Southeastern Signal school, Fort Gordon, Ga.

The 15-week course trained him to operate radio transmitting and receiving sets in combination with teletypewriter equipment.

Dale, whose mother, Mrs. Louise Leake, lives on West Raymond St., entered the Army in July, 1956, and completed basic training at Fort Leonard Wood, Mo. He arrived at Fort Gordon for an assignment at Fort Campbell, Ky.

While a civilian, Dale worked for the Sohio Pipeline Company. He was graduated from high school in Harrisburg in 1954.

BERCHTESGADEN, Germany (AHTNC)—Specialist Third Class Gail E. Ballard, 20, son of Robert Ballard, Route 3, Galatia, Ill., recently attended a five-day retreat at the Army's European Religious Retreat House at Berchtesgaden, Germany.

The program included lectures, conferences and special church services.

Specialist Ballard, who has been overseas since April, is regularly assigned to Battery C of the 95th Antiaircraft Artillery Battalion in Mannheim, Germany.

A farmer in civilian life, he entered the Army in September 1955 and completed basic training at Fort Leonard Wood, Mo.

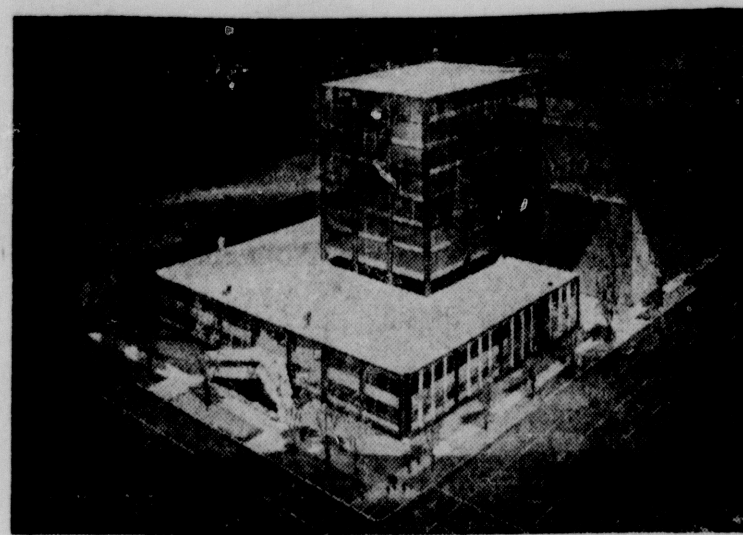

His wife, Nancy, is with him in Germany.

JOHNSON AIR BASE, Japan — With Far East Air Forces near Tokyo, Technical Sergeant William E. Graves, Harrisburg, Ill., recently arrived at Johnson Air Base for assignment with Headquarters Squadron of 41st Air Division.

The wife of the sergeant, Alma, resides at Harrisburg.

During his tour of duty, Sergeant Graves will have many opportunities to travel throughout the central Japan area to acquaint himself with the customs and culture of the people.

FORT GORDON, Ga. (AHTNC)—Pvt. Earnest F. Dorch, 18, son of Mr. and Mrs. Herman S. Dorch,

Architect's Drawing: New Home Office, Kiwanis International, Chicago, Illinois

Kiwanis International to Construct New Home Office Building in Chicago

Construction of a permanent home office building in Chicago at a cost of nearly a million dollars will begin late this winter, the president of Kiwanis International, H. Park Arnold, Glendale, California, announced recently in Chicago during the organization's late summer Board meeting.

The new building, which will be headquarters for the international service group, will occupy property at the corner of Rush and Erie streets on Chicago's near north side. The site is one block west of the city's famed "Magnificent Mile," and about five blocks north of the Chicago River. The building will contain approximately 35,000 square feet of floor space in a ground level, a first level, and a second level.

The building will be of modern, light construction, air conditioned throughout. Its exterior will be composed of dark opalescent limestone.

Route 2, Shawneetown, Ill., recently was graduated from the linemen course at the Army's Southeastern Signal School, Fort Gordon, Ga.

The eight-week course trained him to construct and maintain both open and lead-covered field communication wires and cables.

Dorch entered the Army this April and completed basic training at Fort Leonard Wood, Mo.

FORT SAM HOUSTON, Texas (AHTNC)—Capt. William R. Durham, 25, son of Mr. and Mrs. William G. Durham, 211 East Ford avenue, Harrisburg, Ill., recently was graduated from a military medical orientation course at the Army Medical Service School, Fort Sam Houston, Tex.

The course, designed for newly commissioned officers, stressed medical service in combat.

Captain Durham was a physician in Harrisburg before entering the Army last month. He is a 1956 graduate of the University of Illinois' College of Medicine and a member of Alpha Kappa Kappa fraternity.

His wife, Ann, lives in San Antonio.

ported granite and textured, light Georgia marble, with enameled extruded aluminum pilasters and plate glass windows. A ground level, landscaped court and a parking area will share the rear portion of the property. Provision will be made to enlarge the building by constructing a multi-story shaft of office space above this court as the need arises.

The new building is designed to provide facilities for the administration of approximately 7000 Kiwanis clubs, the organization's 1965 goal. (Nineteen hundred and sixty-five will be the 50th anniversary of Kiwanis International.) Currently, there are 4400 Kiwanis clubs and approximately 251,000 Kiwanis members in the United States, Canada, Alaska and the Hawaiian Islands.

The site for the Kiwanis home office was purchased last year when it became evident that the continued enlargement of the service organization and the necessity for an ever-increasing staff was causing Kiwanis to outgrow its present quarters at 520 North Michigan Avenue. Headquarters personnel numbers 125.

Architects for the Kiwanis home office building are Mielke and Smith, of Chicago. Consultant is Leon Chatelain, Washington, D. C. architect, who is president of the American Institute of Architecture.

"Construction of this new building is Kiwanis' declaration of faith in the future of Chicago, of the U. S. and Canada, and the people who have built this organization into a 251,000 man force for good," Arnold said.

Kiwanis, now in its 43rd year, was founded in Detroit, Michigan. The organization has maintained its general offices in Chicago for 38 years.

The new home office building will also serve as headquarters for Key Club International, a Kiwanis-sponsored high school boys' service organization numbering 37,000 youngsters in 1700 U. S. and Canadian high schools, and Circle K International, a college level men's service organization with more than 3500 members in 165 college clubs.

Workmen's Compensation
Laws Liberalized

CHICAGO — Twenty-three states have liberalized workmen's compensation laws this year, according to Commerce Clearing House, national reporting authority on tax and business law.

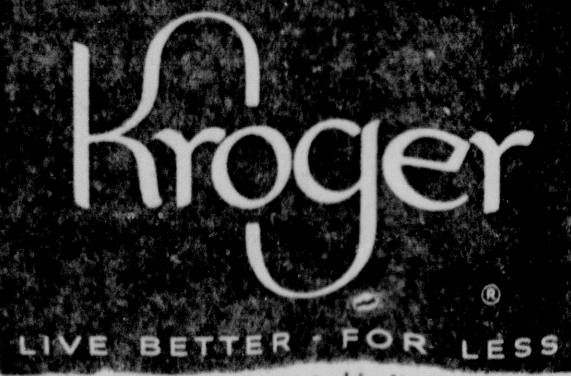

The CCH report said several states extended coverage to include a greater number of workers, and generally, benefits to workers who lose wages due to on-the-job accidents or disabilities were increased.

The list of occupational diseases for which compensation may be paid was increased in some states, while in others changes were made in administrative procedures. Seventeen states raised maximum weekly benefits from $2 to $14, the CCH said.

Movie Pyrotechnics

OGDENSBURG, N. Y. — (UP) — Two boys gave the customers a jolt when they set off firecrackers during a movie, "House of the Living Dead." City Judge P. Conroy Murphy took a dim view of the added attraction and fined the youths 10 dollars apiece.

Speed Warning
BOSTON — (UP) — A motorist driving faster than 50 mph can't see any more than a horse wearing blinders, says the Institute for Safer Living. As speeds go higher, vision gets narrower, "almost as if driving in a tunnel."

Rev. Morman Asks Council Members Cease Bickering

The Rev. R. J. Morman, pastor of the First Baptist church of Harrisburg, this week wrote a letter to members of the Harrisburg city council urging they stop their bickerings and get down to business.

"I challenge you to be the Christians you should be and act accordingly at your meetings," he wrote.

Rev. Morman's letter in full: "To City Council Harrisburg, Ill. Dear Sirs:

"Because I am interested in the betterment of Harrisburg I want to write to you concerning my feelings, and doubtless the feelings of many other citizens of our city. Let me first of all say that I am speaking as a private citizen and not as pastor of the First Baptist Church.

"I have read with interest the reports of your last several meetings. Gentlemen, I am truly disappointed in the reports. They read more like something to be expected from children and not from grown men who have been elected to guide our city's progress to a better place in which to live. It seems to me that if a council of learned men cannot choose from two types of parking meters the one that would be best for the money, then that council is unfit to make decisions of great importance.

"I am sure you men are aware of the need of industry in Harrisburg. It would give employment to the unemployed. Answer this question honestly: if you were planning to bring a plant into Harrisburg and you read of the squabbles as the city council was constantly in and the fist fight at one of the council meetings, would you want to locate here? Gentlemen, You are Harrisburg. You are its people in action for a better city, and I must speak my mind when I say I do not appreciate the way you are representing me in trying to build a better Harrisburg.

"It is my understanding that you all belong to some church of our city. Can it be that the teachings of Christ in how to get along with people have fallen upon deaf ears? We have criticized our United Nations for not inviting God to be present at their meetings. Can it be that you as a council are also leaving Him out of your deliberations. I challenge you to be the Christians you should be and act accordingly at your meetings.

"I am being perfectly honest about my feelings on this matter. If you cannot act in the capacity which you promised, "forgetting self and thinking about the city and what is best for it," then I suggest you all resign and turn the task over to men who will. Yours very sincerely, "R. J. Morman."

Dies of Injuries

STERLING, Ill. (AP)—Mrs. Gemple Pierceson, 60, Rock Falls, died Wednesday of injuries suffered when a car driven by her husband, John, 72, collided with another on Route 30 near Rock Falls.

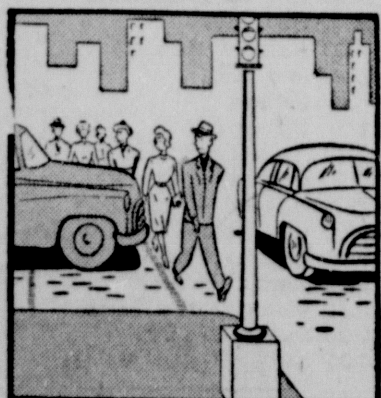

Tips on Traffic Safety

By CHARLES F. CARPENTIER
Secretary of State

Many motorists cause traffic situations which, in turn, incense them and result in their blaming other drivers for being poor handlers of motor vehicles. One of these is the motorist who does little whatsoever to alleviate traffic tie-ups during rush hour periods.

It is a selfish motorist who squeezes his vehicle for every inch he can make during these periods. His one aim is to get ahead of the other fellow. In doing this he blocks the traffic line.

Such drivers follow as closely as possible the vehicle in front of them. They will travel into the crosswalk after the traffic signal has turned red. By doing so, needless to say, they are accomplishing nothing in their attempt to hasten their trip. However, they are interfering with the flow of pedestrians crossing the street. As one observer recently pointed out, it's strange that so many drivers who wave the pedestrian or other motorist on at an uncrowded intersection will fight for every last inch of space when an intersection is crowded.

Fourth Annual Plowing Contest To Be Saturday

Plans are nearing completion for the fourth annual Gallatin county plowing contest. The big event will be held Saturday on the McCue farm located south of Shawneetown and farmed by H. H. Barlow. This is the same field in which the match was held last year.

Implement dealers of the county will begin demonstrating various new farm implements at about 10:00 a.m. This will be followed by the plowing contest.

Alfred Rister, chairman of the Soil Conservation District, extends an invitation to everyone interested in better farming to attend.

Refreshments will be served by members of the Gallatin County Home Bureau.

Couple Who Left 7 Children in Motel Face Neglect Charges

CLINTON, Iowa (AP)—A couple accused of abandoning seven youngsters in a motel today faced a preliminary hearing on charges of wanton neglect.

Francis Smith, 52, and his new bride, the former Mary Jane Schaefer, 27, both of Fort Wayne, Ind., allegedly told Smith's children they "were going for a ride" and drove away.

The children were found in a De Witt, Iowa, motel Friday, with only $1.30, a loaf of bread and some cheese.

Authorities arrested Smith at Keokuk, Iowa, Tuesday, several hours after he said he and Miss Schaefer were married in Kahoka, Mo. Officials said Smith had tripped himself up with a phony story he told Red Cross authorities in order to win aid.

Concessions to Reds at Arms Talks Reported

Washington Shows Pessimism Over Agreement Chance

By WILLIAM C. SEXTON
United Press Staff Correspondent
LONDON (AP)—The Western powers will offer "some" concessions to the Soviets today in an attempt to prevent complete collapse of the London disarmament talks, it was reported.

U. S. delegate Harold E. Stassen is scheduled to formally present the full Western first-step arms reduction "package" plan when the U. N. disarmament subcommission meets this afternoon.

American sources said the package includes "some" concessions on nuclear tests, but retains the Western condition linking suspension of tests with an end to production of nuclear weapon material. Russia has been demanding an unconditional end to nuclear weapons tests.

Most of the Western "package" plan already has been submitted orally to Soviet delegate Valerian Zorin, and rejected. Zorin's harsh words, coupled with Moscow's claim to have successfully tested an intercontinental ballistic missile, dealt a heavy blow to hopes for an East-West disarmament agreement.

Official quarters in Washington were reported increasingly pessimistic over chances for even a first-step agreement.

Mrs. Laura Jennings Of Rosiclare Dies

Mrs. Laura Jennings, 69, widow of Finas Jennings of Rosiclare, died in the Hardin County General hospital at 4:30 p. m. Wednesday. The body is in the care of the Hosick funeral home of Rosiclare and funeral plans are incomplete.

Announce Opening Of Raleigh School

Tuesday, September 3

Raleigh school will open Tuesday, Sept. 3, and be in session all day, with the cafeteria in operation, Cecil Fulkerson, principal, has announced.

Book rentals, to be paid on the opening day of school, will be $4 for grades 1, 2, 3 and 4 and $6 for grades 5, 6, 7 and 8.

All first and fifth grade pupils are required to have physical and dental examinations, which must be completed before the end of the first week of school.

The building has been redecorated and new maps purchased and pupils riding on the bus driven by Arnold Odle will have a brand new bus this year. Other bus driver is Sam Harris. The drivers will cover the same routes as last year.

Lunches will be 25 cents per meal.

School personnel: Edith Cain,

teacher grades 1 and 2; Mabel Leonard, teacher grades 3 and 4; Roswell Sisney, teacher grades 5 and 6; Cecil Fulkerson, principal and teacher grades 7 and 8.

Elizabeth Rogers and Cora Chaffin are the cooks and Arnold Odle is custodian.

Safety Council Issues Challenge to Drivers

CHICAGO (AP)—The National Safety Council today challenged the nation's motorists to make the organization's 420 - traffic death estimate for the Labor Day weekend "ridiculously high."

"We did it on Memorial Day. We did it on the Fourth of July. We can do it again over Labor Day," Council President Nead Dearborn said.

The Daily Register 30c a week by carrier boy.

More than 2 Million To Enter Schools in Illinois for 1957 Term

SPRINGFIELD (AP)—More than two million school pupils are expected to enroll in Illinois schools for the first time in history as school bells toll for the 1957-58 session.

Education officials today came up with estimates for the school enrollments—elementary and high schools—and reported "there is no end in sight" to climbing enrollment figures.

Many schools will begin their new terms Tuesday, with Labor Day marking the end of the summer vacation. But a good many downstate schools didn't wait until the end of August, with first classes meeting this week.

Du Quoin Gets Hambletonian Through 1959

Society Pleased With Running of Race This Year

DU QUOIN, Ill. (UP) — The Du Quoin fairgrounds today looked forward to running next year's Hambletonian, an annual trotting stake for 3-year-olds.

The Hambletonian Society Wednesday awarded the southern Illinois fairgrounds an additional year's contract, granting it the Hambletonian through the 1959 race.

It was believed that the society was so pleased with the recent running of the race at Du Quoin that it planned to grant the Du Quoin State Fair a long-term contract.

However, the society accidentally failed to advertise for other bids and thus could only grant a one-year extension of the Du Quoin contract.

Hickory Smoke, driven by Johnny Simpson, won the 1957 Hambletonian by taking three straight heats.

Leslie Casey Named SIU Swim Coach

CARBONDALE, Ill. (UP) — Leslie Casey, 41, head swimming coach at the University of North Carolina for the last six years, has been appointed to a similar post at Southern Illinois University.

Casey succeeds William Heuser, who left SIU this summer to become head swimming coach at the University of Minnesota.

Casey's North Carolina team took the Atlantic Coast title with a 10-0 record last year. His overall nine-year college record for dual meets is 75 wins and 14 losses.

CHAMPIONS—The Harrisburg entry in the Junior Legion baseball program carried off all honors in the 24th district, copping the tourney title and also the regular season championship. For the season Harrisburg won 15 games and lost only 4 and in regular Legion scheduled competition the locals had a 13-2 record, with other losses coming in the 5th Division tournament and at Paducah, in the season's finale. The team was awarded two trophies, which will be displayed at the George Hart Post 167, American Legion, sponsor of the team. Following the completion of the season the team was banqueted by the Legion Post. Social Brethren Cops III Championship, Win over Baptists

Social Brethren blanked First Baptist, 9 to 0, Wednesday to win the final III league playoff game and the league championship.

Ronnie Hutchison hurled for the winners, scattering six hits while walking two and fanning two. The Social Brethren nine played very good defensive ball, making only one error and executing two double plays, on one of which the center fielder covered second base.

Donnie Hutchison doubled and singled and Bill McKeever singled twice to lead the winners, and Bill Brown, R. Hutchison and Mike Cline had single hits.

Bobby Karnes, losing pitcher, gave up only seven safeties, walked three and struck out four, but his teammates made four errors. Nicky Hicks, Karnes, Richard Wiley, Stephen Maszaros, Sam Potter and Ray Craver had Baptist hits.

Yanks, Chi-Sox Start Bidding of Maglie and Trucks for Final Drive

CHICAGO (UP) — The league-leading New York Yankees and the frantic Chicago White Sox started a bidding contest today for aging pitchers Sal Maglie of Brooklyn and Virgil Trucks of Kansas City as both clubs headed into the pennant stretch drive.

The Yankees, recovering from recent jitters after a late season slump, and the White Sox, within reaching distance of the flag, are both in need of mound help. Maglie is 6-6 and Trucks 8-5 thus far. Charles Comiskey, youthful vice president of the Chicago club, brought the bargaining contest out of the realm of rumor when he said he was "interested" in obtaining the 40-year-old Maglie.

Paul Waner to Enter T.B. Sanitarium

SARASOTA, Fla. (UP) — Baseball great Paul Waner is expected to enter a sanitarium soon for treatment of tuberculosis.

Waner, a member of the Baseball Hall of Fame and now a batting coach for the Milwaukee Braves, said he was relieved at the diagnosis of tuberculosis made by a Milwaukee physician last Thursday. He said he feared he had cancer.

Martinez Snaps Gomes' Win Streak

BOSTON (UP) — Agile Isidro Martinez of Panama looked forward to a ranking among world featherweights today after slashing his way to a unanimous 10-round decision over Harold Gomes of Providence, R. I.

The dancing Panamanian champion, who weighed in at 129 1/2, snapped a 12-bout victory streak for Gomes Wednesday night at Boston Arena in a nationally-televised bout.

Trout Tries Comeback

VANCOUVER, B. C. (UP) — Paul (Dizzy) Trout, trying to make a baseball comeback at the age of 42, feared today that "you can't bring it back." The one-time Detroit Tigers pitcher made his first start for Vancouver of the Pacific Coast League Tuesday night and lost to Los Angeles, 8-6.

Tigers Recall Hurler

DETROIT (UP) — Right-hander Jim Stump, who had a 14-and-11 record for Birmingham of the Southern Association, reported to the parent Detroit Tigers today. The 25-year-old Stump replaced southpaw Al Aber, who went to the Kansas City Athletics on waivers Tuesday.

Stengel Grinning Again; His Yanks Take Second Straight From Contending White Sox

By MILTON RICHMAN
United Press Sports Writer

Casey Stengel's two famous trademarks — the wink and the impish grin — finally were back in place today as he fits a chipper skipper who knows he has just about wrapped up his eighth pennant in nine tries.

The Yankees restored that long absent Stengel grin Wednesday night when they widened their American League lead to a full-blown 5 1/2 games by knocking over the ambitious Chicago White Sox for the second straight night, 5-4.

Don Larsen was the winner, but the hero was reliever Bob Turley, who was summoned from the bullpen for the second successive night and nailed down the Yankee triumph. Turley first got Larsen out of a jam in the sixth inning, then worked himself out of a bases-loaded situation in the seventh after yielding a two-run homer to Earl Torgerson.

Hank Bauer hammered his 15th homer of the year in the seventh off loser Billy Pierce.

Orioles On Rampage

The Baltimore Orioles staged the biggest offensive in their history to maul the Cleveland Indians, 19-6, while Washington defeated Kansas City, 3-2, and Boston beat Detroit, 1-0, on Ted Williams' 33rd homer of the season.

In the National League, the Dodgers took over second place with a 14-inning, 4-3 triumph over the Cubs; the Giants crushed the Braves, 12-6, slicing their lead to seven games; Cincinnati climbed back into the first division with a 6-5 win over Philadelphia, and Pittsburgh blanked St. Louis, 2-0.

Gus Triandos and Tito Francona paced the Orioles to their one-sided victory over the Indians; Triandos hitting a pair of homers and driving in five runs while Francona drove in four runs with four hits.

Pedro Ramos of the Senators fired a four-hitter against Kansas City in registering his 10th triumph.

Williams' homer came in the seventh inning and was one of the two hits allowed by Jim Bunning, who absorbed his seventh loss.

Valo Comes Through

Pinch-hitter Elmer Valo produced Brooklyn's victory over the Cubs with a 14th-inning single off Dave Hillman that scored Randy Jackson from third.

The Giants broke loose for eight runs in the third inning, their biggest rally of the season, in sending Gene Conley of the Braves down to his seventh loss.

The Redlegs blasted Curt Simmons and Jim Hearn for six runs in the second inning and then hung on to edge the Phillies. Wally Post's 17th homer with one on highlighted the rally. Robin Roberts made his first relief appearance since being lifted from the starting rotation and blanked Cincinnati on three hits for 5 1-3 innings. Brooks Lawrence was the winner.

Right-hander Ronnie Kline of the Pirates reeled off his fourth straight win and sixth of the season in holding the Cardinals to six hits.

New Haven, Settled Shortly After 1800, Was Early Trail Crossing

John W. Allen
Southern Illinois University
An early Illinois trail led from Shawneetown on the Ohio toward Vincennes Indiana. It crossed the Little Wabash at the rocky rapids where New Haven now is. Shortly after 1800 settlers began to locate near this river crossing. Among the early arrivals are John Pond, Joseph Boone, Samuel Dagley, Robert Grant, "Paddy" Robinson, the Pearces and Trousdale.

John Pond is said to have been the first to open a farm in the community that later became known as the Pond Creek settlement, a name even yet heard occasionally. Joseph Boone, a brother of Daniel, selected a site on the south side of the Little Wabash at the rapids. Here he built a palisaded fort, a grist mill powered by a water wheel, and was licensed to operate a ferry. Samuel Dagley, whose sister Boone had married, brought his wife and 15 children to live near the Boones.

First Town Laid Out
Robert Grant laid out the first town of 161 lots, setting aside one lot for a church, another for a school, a third for a mill and a fourth one for a burying ground. Grant also opened a general store that prospered. "Paddy" Robinson became a flatboatman, and noted trader, buying and shipping almost anything salable from the yard at the foot of the rapids. "Paddy" also built an eight room log building as an inn. This building was staunchly built and was intended to double as a fort if such became necessary. It was heated with five large fireplaces.

Another man settling near New Haven was the Rev. R. M. Davis, a

Presbyterian minister, who located about three miles northwest from the village and established Union Ridge Church, which he served 52 years as pastor. It is in the burying ground at this church that the man who served as General Washington's baggage master during the Revolution is buried.

The town of New Haven has passed through several periods of prosperity and adversity. At one time it had two widely known hotels to accommodate travellers, a large sawmill, four saloons, six general stores, a tan yard, a distillery, along with blacksmiths, coopers, gunsmiths, and other pioneer craftsmen. At the height of its prosperity it had five banks and was said to have had more actual cash than any other place in the state. At that time it also was a river port of importance.

Begins Long Decline
When railroads were built, they by-passed New Haven by some miles. River traffic diminished, improved highways were slow to reach the town, and New Haven began a long decline. A new section of the state highway now passes at the edge of the town and crosses the river near the place where Boone's Ferry once was. The large and once busy three story mill and its water wheel are gone. Some bolt holes in the ledge of rock across the stream show where the timbers of the dam were anchored.

The Graddy House and "Paddy's" large eight room log inn and five great fireplaces passed long ago. No part of Boone's Fort remains. Until it was blown down by the wind a few years ago, however, there was one reminder of the days of the fort. That was a large catalpa tree known as the Elizabeth Boone Tree. It had grown from a riding switch that Boone's daughter stuck into the ground near the palisade wall upon her return from a horseback ride. It grew into a great tree. Other large catalpas there now are seedlings of the tree that Elizabeth unwittingly planted.

Scalped by Indians
A few stories of New Haven and earlier days are still related. One of these concerns the Pond family and some Indians. It is briefly told here.

In the fall of 1812 Pond went to help raise a house for a newly arrived settler. Leaving his wife and two small sons at home, he departed in early morning. When he returned at dusk he found his wife, murdered and scalped lying in the home. His two sons had been tomahawked and scalped and were lying against the house by the stick and clay chimney. One was living. The attack evidently had occurred in the forenoon after Pond had left home.

Neighbors were notified of the crime. It was learned that three Piankashaw Indians had been seen lurking in the vicinity. The next day, 20 hours or more after the crime, Pond and two of his neighbors named Pearce and Trousdale set out to apprehend the Indians. By observing broken wild peavines they were able to pick up and follow the trail. When the prairie was reached, the trail was easily followed through the tall grass. Pond and his companions were mounted while the Indians were on foot. This enabled the pursuers to gain upon the fleeing Indians. On the third day signs became fresh and it became evident that they were near the Indians. They were found making a meal from a wild turkey. Pond and his companions crept forward, each selecting an Indian as his target and fired. One of the guns misfired and only two of the Indians were killed. The third escaped and though they hunted all day for him he could not be found. Searching the dead in dians, Pond recovered the scalps of his wife and sons.

The Pond story, however, does not end here. A short time after the tragedy, Pond moved from New Haven to western Missouri with his young son. The son grew to manhood there. Pearce remained at New Haven until he was an old man, when he too decided to move farther west. Passing through Missouri on his journey Pearce stopped to spend the night at a farmer's home. Learning that his visitor earlier had lived at New Haven, Pond, now approaching middle age, asked if Pearce had once known a family there named Pond. Pearce assured him that he had and told the story of the killing and scalping. At the end of the story Pond calmly walked to the mantel, opened the clock and took from it a carefully wrapped package. From it he removed a scalp about the size of a dollar with blond hair. He pointed out the scar on his head where the scalp had been removed. Incredible as the coincidence may seem, the story is documented and apparently is true.

West Asks Russia for Ban On Nuclear Weapons, Except Defense Purposes

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Western Allies asked Russia today to agree to a ban on nuclear weapons, except for defense purposes, as part of a "package" first step disarmament plan.

The Western plan was made public simultaneously here and in London, where it was handed to the Russians.

It wrapped up previous Allied proposals for halting nuclear bomb testing, stopping production of nuclear bomb materials, reducing dangers of surprise attack and reducing the world's major armed forces and armed supplies.

The United States immediately issued a separate appeal to the Soviet Union to accept the plan as a "practical, workable" way to start on the problem of world disarmament.

Outlook Is Dim

"The Western Allies earnestly hope the Soviet Union will give full consideration to this far-reaching proposal," the State Department said. "Soviet acceptance will enable a start to be made toward removing the terrible dangers of nuclear war that hang over the whole world."

Outlook for Soviet acceptance of the Western plan was regarded as extremely dim. Only Wednesday, President Eisenhower expressed deep disappointment that the Soviet Union was using "scornful words" and making "boastful statements" even before the Allied plan was presented in London.

Eisenhower warned that hasty Soviet rejection of the Western proposals "would condemn humanity to an indefinite future of immeasurable danger." He went on to say that the United States, for its part, would continue its efforts to seek a just and lasting peace.

Most of the provisions in the Western "package" had been outlined orally previously in London. Russia had rejected the key points.

Besides wrapping up its previously disclosed proposals, the West's "working paper" had an important new provision.

The plan calls for signatories to a first step arms agreement to agree "not to use nuclear weapons" unless an armed attack requires counter-defensive action. This is in line with Article 51 of the United Nations Charter which provides for individual or collective self defense.

A related new proposal would permit the transfer of nuclear weapons as part of an agreement to use them only for defensive purposes.

Approve Unit School District At Galatia

A Community Unit School district, that will include Galatia township and parts of Brushy, Tate and Long Branch townships, was approved by voters Wednesday, 401 to 195.

For the unit district to be approved, it had to receive a favorable vote in both the urban and rural areas.

C. R. Gardner, Saline County Superintendent of Schools, reports the following vote: Precinct 1, within the Galatia village limits, 210 in favor, 68 against, 1 spoiled ballot;

Precinct No. 2, Brushy township, 101 in favor, 87 opposed, 1 spoiled ballot;

Precinct No. 3, Tate township, 57 in favor, 24 opposed, 1 spoiled ballot;

Precinct No. 4, Long Branch township, 33 in favor, 6 opposed.

The rural area of Galatia township was divided so that patrons would vote at the township polling place nearest their residence.

The unit is effective now. Mr. Gardner said, as the election was held prior to the beginning of the school term.

The next step in organizing the unit district is to elect a seven-member Board of Education and the election must be called within 30 days, Mr. Gardner stated this morning.

The state law covering a school district of this size states that not more than three members of the Board of Education may be chosen from any one township.

Schools in the district are the Galatia high and grade schools, and Harco and Holmes schools in Brushy township.

Probe Ship Sinking That Killed 94

BUENOS AIRES (AP) — Crewmen of the U. S. freighter Mormacsurf were held incommunicado aboard their ship here today pending investigation of a collision-sinking that killed an estimated 94 Argentines.

The sinking of a riverboat, City of Buenos Aires, in the Plate Estuary Tuesday night may prove to be the worst marine tragedy in Argentine history.

Capt. Silverio Bruzuela went down with his riverboat. Reports that he blew out his brains as the boat was sinking could not be confirmed immediately.

Crewmen of the American freighter were seized when the ship docked here late Wednesday, about 18 hours after the collision. Capt. Kenneth Sommers, of San Francisco, was hustled off to Coast Guard headquarters for questioning by Federal Judge Miguel del Castillo.

The Mormacsurf, outward bound from Rosario with a cargo of Argentine grain, and the river boat collided about 11 p. m. Tuesday near the point where the Parana and Uruguay rivers flow together to form the estuary.

Death Takes Hugh Wasson

Former Deputy Marshal Lived Here Since 1895

Hugh F. Wasson, 70, 307 East Logan street, Harrisburg, died in the Harrisburg hospital at 2:25 a. m. today of a cerebral hemorrhage. He had entered the hospital, Monday night.

Son of A. R. and Mary Wasson, he was born in Pope county Sept. 7, 1886, and was married to the former Miss Maud Hicks in 1926, who preceded him in death ten years ago. He had been a resident of the Harrisburg community since 1895. Retired, he had served three terms as a deputy U. S. marshal. He was a member of the Big Saline Baptist church.

Mr. Wasson is survived by his stepdaughter, Mildred Rose Dookey, and his brothers, Lloyd Wasson and Carl Wasson of Harrisburg, and Earl "Pete" Wasson of Granite City. Two brothers and three sisters preceded him in death, the latest being Mrs. Cora Wasson Harris, who died nine years ago.

The body will lie in state at the Gaskins funeral home and funeral arrangements will be announced later.

'Good Suspects' Reported in Torso Slaying

Will Definitely Solve Murder, Says Detective Chief

CHICAGO (AP) — Police today investigated a number of "good suspects" in the gruesome slaying of Judith Mae Andersen, 15, whose butchered body was found stuffed in oil drums.

"This is one (slaying) that is going to be solved — definitely," said Lt. Michael Spiotto, head of the detective bureau.

The names of the suspects, which were not disclosed, were obtained Wednesday night during lie detector tests on Elena Abbaticola, 15, the victim's closest friend, and four of Elena's brothers.

Elena is the last known person to have seen Judith Mae alive. The two girls had spent the evening of Aug. 16 watching television until about 11:15 p. m. at the Abbaticola apartment when Judith Mae left for home and disappeared.

Her torso was found last Thursday in an oil drum floating in Lake Michigan. Her arms, hands and head were found in a second oil container in the lake three days later.

Authorities said Elena and her brothers took the lie tests voluntarily to clear up discrepancies and to establish they were not hiding any information about the case.

The tests "cleared" Elena and three of her brothers, Nicholas, 18; John, 26, and Leo, 30, police said.

The results on the fourth brother, Joseph, 28, were "inconclusive," but police emphasized he was not a suspect. Joseph will be given another test today, they said.

Sgt. Thomas Mulvey, head of a special investigating unit, said the persons named by Elena were under surveillance and did not know they are being watched.

Find Stolen Tomb Stone Near Town

Chief of Police Ross Lane stated this morning "now I have done everything" and went on to reveal he had recovered a stolen tomb stone.

Wednesday Chief Lane was driving out in the Liberty community to visit his brother when he noticed a large number of Harrisburg street signs and a Top Value stamp sign under a large tree on the blacktop road, west of the cemetery.

Further investigation revealed a 200-pound tomb stone in the weeds along the road.

Chief Lane contacted Sheriff William Barrett, who had earlier been notified by the Simpson Monument Works, Eldorado, that one of their stones was missing. Identification was made and the stone returned to Eldorado.

Lane is of the opinion the stone was stolen to be used to add weight to an automobile used in drag racing as the Liberty road is used as a "drag strip."

Anyone giving information leading to the arrest and conviction of the person stealing the tombstone will be liberally rewarded and the name of the one giving the information will not be revealed, Lane declared today.

Mrs. Gladys Hardin Dies Here; Funeral Friday at Rosiclare

Mrs. Gladys Hardin, 50, wife of Loren Hardin, 403 West Lincoln street, Harrisburg, died at the Lightner hospital at 1:30 p. m. Wednesday. She is survived by her husband, Loren Hardin, her mother, Mrs. Dessie McDonald, her brother, Eugene McDonald of Williams, Penn., and her sisters, Mrs. Bertha Kaylor and Mrs. Hallie Bramlet of Harrisburg and Mrs. Myrtle Collins of Tucson, Ariz. She was born in Carversville, Ky., to the late George McDonald and Dessie McDonald, who survive.

The body will lie in state in the chapel of the Harrisburg funeral home and the funeral will be held in the First Baptist church in Rosiclare at 2 p. m. Friday. Burial will be in the Flourine cemetery at Rosiclare.

Craig Rice, Mystery Writer, Dies Suddenly

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Mystery writer Craig Rice died unexpectedly Wednesday night in her apartment, apparently of natural causes. She was 49.

Miss Rice, a native of Chicago, was one of the best known contemporary "whodunit" authors. She was stricken while entertaining several friends. She fell to the floor and was dead when police arrived.

Beck's Income Tax Trial Next Year, Probably

Charge He Evaded Paying $240,000 Over Four Years

TACOMA, Wash. (AP) — Dave Beck, international president of the Teamsters Union, probably will go on trial here early next year on two charges of evading some $240,000 in federal income tax over a four-year period.

The portly union leader was charged Wednesday by a federal grand jury with failure to report $184,000 in taxes during the period 1951-53. His son, Dave Beck Jr., and four others also were indicted.

It was expected this charge would be consolidated with an other handed last May 2 by the same jury accusing Beck of evading $56,000 in taxes for 1950.

Indicted with Beck and his son were Norman Gessert, general organizer for the union; Fred Verschuere Sr., the union's auditor; Nathan Shefferman, a Chicago labor relations consultant, and Shefferman's son, Shelton.

The men are scheduled for arraignment before Federal District Judge John C. Bowen Sept. 12. Beck's bond was set at $25,000 with $5,000 for the other defendants.

Beck, in Los Angeles for a meeting of the "teamsters" Executive Board, said he was "not surprised" at the indictment, "but I certainly am not guilty."

"I never made out my own income tax. I hired public accountants to do it. If mistakes were made, they made them," he said.

Kefauver Rips Hike by U. S. Steel

WASHINGTON (AP) — Sen. Estes Kefauver today attacked U. S. Steel Corp. for hiking its steel price $6 a ton with the knowledge that its "so-called competitors" would follow the lead.

Kefauver said concentration of control in the steel industry is increasing.

The Tennessee Democrat, chairman of the Senate Antitrust and Monopoly subcommittee, told the Senate in a prepared speech that "the whole matter of costs and prices requires further investigation." This committee has been looking into the steel price hike for several weeks.

Kefauver accused U. S. Steel of refusing to give the subcommittee a breakdown of its cost figures despite a promise that the figures of no single steel firm would be disclosed.

However, he said, "it is obvious" that there is a substantial gap between the company's July $6 a ton price increase and the amount by which its wage costs increased.

Bike, Auto Collide, David Hauptmann, 10, Suffers Injuries

David Hauptmann, 10-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Tom Hauptmann, is a patient at Lightner hospital receiving treatment for injuries received Wednesday in an automobile-bicycle collision.

An automobile, driven by Mrs. Clyde Wilmoth and bicycle ridden by young Hauptmann collided at the intersection of alleys running north and south between Granger and McKinley and east and west between Poplar and Church streets.

Mrs. Wilmoth was driving north and David riding west at the time of the accident, Policeman Pat Atkinson, who made the investigation, reported.

David received a compound fracture of the right arm, near the wrist, and facial and arm burns.

Labor Day Celebration Here to Feature Blackwood Brothers

A big program of gospel singing is scheduled for the Saline County Fairgrounds on Labor Day evening. This will be the regular Labor Day program, sponsored annually in Saline county by the Trades and Labor Council and business and professional men of the county.

In years past the Labor Day program has been an all-day affair, however this year's program is strictly an evening show, starting about 7 p. m. and continuing until midnight.

Three gospel singing groups, headed by the Blackwood Brothers quartet of Memphis, Tenn., will appear on the platform in front of the grandstand.

Also on the program will be the Klauft Gospel Family and The Melody Makers of St. Louis.

The Blackwood Bros. quartet is probably America's most famous gospel quartet. Organized in 1934 they have been singing ever since, having travelled from coast to coast and from Canada to Mexico. James Blackwood, versatile emcee and lead singer of the group, has without a doubt travelled more miles than other men in the gospel field.

The Blackwood Brothers have had many national honors, having appeared on all major networks, coast to coast but perhaps their greatest achievement was being the first gospel quartet to appear on one of the top television net work programs in June, 1954, they sang the Arthur Godfrey Talent Scout Show on the combined CBS television and radio network.

The song used by the Blackwood Brothers on the Godfrey Show, "The Man Upstairs," was their national hit on RCA Victor records in 1954; in fact RCA lists the Blackwood Brothers as their top gospel recording group.

The quartet was originally composed of three brothers and a nephew, but today, James, who was crowned "Mr. Gospel Singer of America" in 1951, is the only member of the original group that remains. He is joined by a nephew, Carl Blackwood, who sings baritone; Bill Shaw, first tenor; J. D. Sumner, bass; and Jack Marshall, pianist.

Everyone is cordially invited to come to the Saline County Fairgrounds Labor Day evening and enjoy the gospel singing program, presented by laboring and business and professional people of the county. Admission is free.

Has Talked Since Last Night Against Civil Rights Bill

By JAMES BAAR

WASHINGTON (AP) — Senate Republican Leader William F. Knowland predicted today that Congress may be able to finish up its work and adjourn tonight.

Knowland made the prediction to President Eisenhower during a conference at the White House.

It was based on a belief by Knowland that the one-man filibuster in the Senate by Sen. Strom Thurmond (D-S. C.) against the compromise civil rights bill would peter out and that other Southerners would not join in the talkathon.

Thurmond took the Senate floor at 8:54 p. m. Wednesday. He was still talking at 3 o'clock this morning—17 hours later.

Knowland's prediction also assumed that Senate and House would give quick approval to the compromise foreign aid bill, the only piece of major legislation besides civil rights still blocking adjournment.

The House already has passed the rights bill and was scheduled to take up the aid bill today.

The compromise aid bill totaled $2,768,760,000—600 million less than Eisenhower had pleaded for.

House-Senate conferees reached the compromise late Wednesday. The final figure was 244 million dollars more than the House had voted; 257 million less than the Senate voted.

Other high points in the adjournment rush:

PROXIMITY: Sen.-elect William Proxmire (D-Wis.) stood on the Senate floor Wednesday night less than 24 hours after his upset victory. But GOP opposition blocked swearing him in until later today, when he took his oath of office.

FBI FILES: House-Senate conferees called a meeting to reach a compromise on legislation aimed at protecting the FBI files in criminal trials. The House's bill is supported by the administration. The Senate bill is weaker.

IMMIGRATION: The House sent its so-called hardship immigration bill to the Senate for approval of technical amendments. The Senate already has passed a similar bill. Both would open American shores to more than 60,000 more aliens in the next two years.

Adjournment fever was running high. Congressmen were buying tickets for home—and for Paris, Rome and the Orient. A boom year for congressional junketing appeared in prospect.

House GOP Leader Joseph W. Martin Jr. said on the House floor in granting travel permission to four committees for study trips abroad:

"Do you think that we could raise a quorum in Paris?"

Death Ends 71 Years of Marriage at Golconda

Mrs. Alice Rondeau, 88, wife of Jeff Rondeau, died at 6:30 p. m. Wednesday, in her home at Golconda. The body is in the care of the Hoffman funeral chapel of Golconda where funeral plans are incomplete.

Governor Wm. G. Stratton had sent a letter of congratulation to Mr. and Mrs. Rondeau earlier this year on the occasion of their 71st wedding anniversary celebration.

The WASHINGTON MERRY-GO-ROUND
by DREW PEARSON

DREW PEARSON Says: Sen. Margaret Chase Smith of Maine Shoves The Brass Hats Around; She Blocks The Promotion Of Unqualified Reserve Officers; She Won't Permit Gen. Rosie O'Donnell To Change His Testimony.

WASHINGTON — Senator Margaret Chase Smith of Maine, only lady senator, has now won her battle with the Air Force.

She has blocked the promotion of Air Force glamor boy Jimmy Stewart, who played the part of Lindbergh in the "Spirit of St. Louis" to be a brigadier general. She also blocked the promotion of John Montgomery, vice president of General Electric.

How she did it is a little-known story of one lady, plus a determined assistant against the brass hats.

The backstage battle got rough at times. Air Force propagandists accused Mrs. Smith's assistant, Bill Lewis, of holding up other promotions because he was not promoted himself. They also put out stories that Mrs. Smith was irked because she wanted to be commander of the WAFFS in time of war and the Air Force turned her down.

It was also intimated that Mrs. Smith wanted to extend her own reserve commission as a colonel in the WAFFS, which expires automatically December 14 when she reaches the age of 60—first, because she didn't want her age known, and second, because she wanted continuing reservist pay. This was obviously erroneous because Mrs. Smith has made no secret about her age, spells it out in Who's Who for everyone to read.

Real fact is, that Senator Smith is the author of the Reserve Personnel Act, contented past wars have been won 90 per cent by the reserves, that their training in peacetime must be thorough.

MRS. SMITH DIGS

So when the Air Force recommended eleven officers for promotion for brigadier or major generals, Mrs. Smith discovered they included big-shot executives who hadn't handled an airplane for years. She and her assistant did what the Senate Foreign Relations Committee has not done with ambassadors, such as Maxwell Gluck. She dug into the background of every officer.

In doing so, she caught the head of Air Force Personnel, Lt. Gen. Emmett "Rosie" O'Donnell in many misstatements of facts and cracked down on him for wanting to change 43 of the 49 pages of testimony in answer to Mrs. Smith; five of six pages in answer to Senator Stennis of Mississippi; three out of three pages in answer to Senator Barrett of Wyoming; and two out of four pages in answer to Chairman Russell of Georgia.

Mrs. Smith sent the testimony back telling O'Donnell to confine himself to editing for grammar, not change his answers.

During the course of the testimony, General O'Donnell bragged that he had kicked 68,000 men out of the reserves because their training wasn't good enough.

"In view of this severity," queried Senator Smith, "why are you promoting Brig. Gen. Robert L. Smith, whose record isn't good enough either?"

LYNDON'S FRIEND

She referred to the good friend of Senator Lyndon Johnson of Texas who is president of Pioneer Air Lines of Dallas. He had only one 15-day tour of duty in eight years. Mrs. Smith pointed out, in direct violation of Air Force Reserve requirements, General O'Donnell, however, tried to show that Mrs. Smith was wrong.

"Senator Smith," he flared, "General Smith was on duty December 10 to December 31, 1956."

"I don't see that on the records supplied by the Air Force," commented Margaret.

"December 10 to December 31," emphasized O'Donnell with great vigor, implying that the lady senator didn't know what she was talking about.

She did. He didn't. When the transcript of O'Donnell's testimony came back, he had deleted his answers. Mrs. Smith refused to allow the deletion.

Mrs. Smith pressed O'Donnell to explain the double standard for reserves which fired 68,000 reservists but promoted an airline executive despite his lazy training record. He replied:

"Well, even though he hasn't so many points, he is in the airline business."

Note—As a courtesy to Lyndon Johnson, Smith's promotion was finally okayed by the Armed Services Committee.

HELPED HIS TAXES

Senator Smith also pointed out that John Allison of Northrup Aircraft had not done a single 15-day tour of duty in nine years. However, he was finally okayed for promotion.

Not so another business executive, J. B. Montgomery, who retired from the Air Force as a temporary major general to take a lush salary with American Airlines, but who now wants to come back into the Air Force as a reserve officer, thereby drawing double pay.

Mrs. Smith did some digging, found this would be a bonanza to Colonel Montgomery income tax-wise; that this was why he hadn't taken his regular retirement pay when he left the Air Force.

Montgomery, now with General Electric, is one of a growing group of officers who get out of the regular service to take jobs in big business, then draw double pay—retirement or reserve benefits—from the government plus salaries from private business.

Mrs. Smith won. Montgomery was denied his promotion.

When actor Jimmy Stewart's name came before the committee, Senator Smith showed that in 11 years as a reservist he had taken only one 15-day tour of duty; this only last year just before he was to come up for promotion.

Despite this zero training record, he had been given a mobilization assignment as deputy director of operations for the Strategic Air Command which requires expert knowledge.

"Is it true that Colonel Stewart has had 18 hours as first pilot of a B-22?" asked Senator Smith, referring to an inspired Air Force story.

"No," replied General O'Donnell.

"Just what aircraft in the Air Force is Colonel Stewart now current and authorized to fly as a first pilot?" pressed Senator Smith.

"None," replied O'Donnell. Jimmy Stewart was not promoted.

Moral: It doesn't pay to argue with a lady.

The U. S. federal government holds nearly 60,000,000 acres of land in trust for American Indians, according to the Encyclopedia Britannica.

S. D. Trees
HURON, S. D. — (UP)—Woodland conservationist A. L. Ford says more than 6,000 acres of trees are planned for planting on the prairie lands of South Dakota this year. Had growing conditions been better in 1956, Ford said, tree planting could have been increased by 20-25 per cent this year. But adverse weather cut the supply of high quality, acclimated nursery stock in 1956.

Clinton Normans Return For Harrisburg Visit

Mr. and Mrs. Clinton Norman of Chicago were in Harrisburg Tuesday visiting with their daughter-in-law and granddaughter, Mrs. Bill W. Norman and Vickie, 128 W. Homer Street, Harrisburg. Other visitors in the home for the family dinner were Mr. and Mrs. Bill D. Harrison and Bobby of Metropolis. Mrs. Harrison is the daughter of the Clinton Normans, who are returning to Chicago today.

They are former Harrisburg RFD residents and still maintain their home here. Mrs. Norman will shortly travel to Phoenix, Ariz., in connection with her work which has taken her to Los Angeles, Calif., Tacoma, Wash., New York City, Pittsburgh, Penn., and Peshigo, Wis., in the last few months.

Home Bureau Climaxes Year With Party

The Dorris Heights Home Bureau unit, as a climax for the year's work, held a bingo party in the home of Mrs. Leo Fowler Tuesday evening. There were traveling prizes, won and lost, but at the end of the game, everyone had a prize. Refreshments were served by Mrs. Fowler and her daughter, Mrs. June Hudgins.

Those attending were: Mrs. Toral Cook, Mrs. Barney Ashe, Mrs. Paul Baker, Mrs. Ranaldo Matthews, Mrs. Bryan Malone, Mrs. Roy Caldwell and Cindy, Mrs. Charles Kielhorn, Mrs. June Hudgins and the hostess, Mrs. Leo Fowler.

Homemade ice cream was enjoyed at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Meier, Carrier Mills, on Sunday, Aug. 25, and the following were in attendance: Mr. and Mrs. Sigel Meier, Arla and Becky, Zorri Ray Mitchell, Mr. and Mrs. Omer Brothers, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Gee, Judy Linton, Mr. and Mrs. Othar Nolen, Mr. and Mrs. Jim Wilkins and Susie, Mr. and Mrs. Ephraim Gee, Pontiac, Mich., Mr. and Mrs. Robert Meier and Wanda, Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Drott, Carol and Dennis of East St. Louis.

Mrs. Mable DeGroot, mother of Mrs. Paul Healy, a former Harrisburg resident, suffered a heart attack Aug. 20 and is in the Elgin St. Thomas hospital at St. Thomas, Ontario, Canada. Mrs. DeGroot will be in the hospital for four to five weeks and is now in room 232 although she is not allowed visitors at this time. Mrs. DeGroot has lived in Canada for two years. Mr. Healy is the bridge and building supervisor for the N.Y.C. railroad.

Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Hancock, 1315 S. Peazel street, Harrisburg, have had the following guests in their home recently: Son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Carbone and daughter, Vickie Jo, Bellflower, Calif.; Rev. A. O. Hancock and daughter, Glenda Sue, Kansas City, Kan.; Mr. and Mrs. Curtis Hancock and son, Larry, Sesser; Mr. Hancock's father, F. C. Hancock, and his brother, Truman, Herrod Springs, and Mrs. James DeNeal, Odon, Ind.

Dr. and Mrs. T. E. Henton, Hyattsville, Md., Wednesday left Harrisburg, where they visited Mrs. Henton's sister, Mrs. Mildred Boicourt. Dr. Henton is with the U. S. Department of Agriculture in the research field. They will visit with their daughter's family, Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Frantz, Lacom, and Mr. Henton's mother in Cleveland, Ohio, before returning to their Maryland home Monday.

A fish fry was held at Karel Park on Friday, Aug. 23, and the following were present: Mr. and Mrs. Robert Meier and Wanda, Mr. and Mrs. Omer Brothers, Mr. and Mrs. Othar Nolen, Mr. and Mrs. Jim Wilkins and Susie, Mr. and Mrs. Ephraim Gee of Pontiac, Mich., and Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Drott, Carol and Dennis from East St. Louis. Mrs. Meier, Mrs. Nolen and Mr. Gee are brother and sisters.

Mrs. O. B. Brown and son, Oren, drove to Falls Creek, Okla., where Oren will spend a week at Falls Creek Music camp. After that he will proceed to Shawnee, Okla., where he is a music major at the Baptist University.

Legion Auxiliary Installation Held Tuesday Evening

The American Legion Auxiliary of the George Hart Post Unit 167 held its regular meeting in the Auxiliary Hall, Tuesday a 7:30 p. m.

The ceremony for the installation of the newly elected officers for the 1957-1958 year was held. The Auxiliary was honored to have Mrs. Helen Vansaghi, of Herrin, 5th Division President, for the installing officer. The following officers were installed: Mrs. George (Dolly) Johnson, president; Mrs. Lowell (Thelma) Hill, 1st vice-president; Mrs. J. Frank (Edyth) Parker, 2nd vice-president; Mrs. Freda Keltner, chaplain; Mrs. J. D. (Virginia) Stanley, historian; Mrs. J. Frank (Edyth) Parker, secretary; Mrs. John (Marian) Humm, treasurer; and Mrs. Denzil (Wilma) Simpson, sergeant at arms.

The installation was held before a beautifully draped laced covered table, with a floral center piece in keeping with the colors of the American Legion Auxiliary.

Mrs. Helen Vansaghi presented Mrs. Ruth Rankin, Junior Past President, with a past President's pin.

A beautiful gift was presented to Mrs. Rankin from the officers of the Auxiliary.

After the installation Mrs. Vansaghi was given a gift from the unit. Mrs. Rankin, in gratitude to her officers for the previous year, presented each of them with a beautiful cut glass candy dish.

Mrs. James Gwaltney was especially honored with a gift from both the Past Presidents Parley and American Legion Auxiliary. The Gwaltney family is moving Thursday to make their home in Bloomington, Illinois where Mr. Gwaltney is the State Adjutant for the Department of Illinois, of the American Legion.

After the meeting refreshments

of open faced sandwiches were served, with hostesses Mrs. Freda Keltner and Mrs. Laura Moore, past Presidents of the unit presiding at the punch bowl.

Other guests were Mrs. Dorita Cobb, of Herrin, who accompanied Mrs. Vansaghi, Mrs. Meritt Kennedy, and Mrs. James Johnson, and members of the American Legion Auxiliary.

All members of the Harrisburg unit will be contacted soon regarding the American Legion Auxiliary membership dues. Those wishing to inquire about their membership dues are asked to call Mrs. Thelma Hill, telephone 1253RX or Mrs. Dolly Johnson.

Calendar Of Meetings

The annual homecoming at Durham cemetery will be held on the second Sunday in September, which is the 8th. The usual basket dinner will be followed by informal entertainment. Everybody is invited.

The Vineyard family reunion will be held at the Karber's Ridge church at 10:30 a. m. Sunday. The morning meeting will be a business session and singing. Rev. Dwight Marshall, Carmi, will give a message at 2 p. m. and there will be special group singing. There will be a lunch served at the noon hour. All members and friends of the family are invited to attend.

Births

Mrs. Ruby Reynolds has returned from East Peoria, where she welcomed into the family a granddaughter, named Teri Sue, born Aug. 16 to Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Bailey. Mrs. Bailey is the daughter of Mrs. Reynolds and Mr. Bailey is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Dee Bailey, Carrier Mills.

MRS. DOLLY JOHNSON, center, being installed as the new president of the American Legion Auxiliary, at its meeting in the Legion Hall, Tuesday evening. Left to right are: Mrs. Freda Keltner, Mrs. Ruth Rankin, retiring president, Mrs. Johnson, Mrs. Thelma Hill, Mrs. Velma Gwaltney and Mrs. Helen Vansaghi, Herrin, Fifth Division of Illinois president, the installing officer. The leaves of the acanthus plant were the inspiration for the heads, or capitals, of Corinthian columns in Greek architecture. The Romans preferred the wider, blunt-pointed acanthus, known as brankursine, or bear's-breech. The pattern of the acanthus leaf was used in early Christian, Byzantine and Romanesque architecture, and later by the French.

REALLY TROPICAL—No studio props for the movie troupe making "South Pacific" on the lush Hawaiian island of Kauai. The backdrop is nature's own "set" of tropical vegetation, wild mountains, green turf and blue sea. This scene shows Mitzi Gaynor, as Nellie Forbush, and Navy nurses rehearsing the famous "Wash That Man Right Out of My Hair" number.

In Memoriam

In memory of our baby, Phillip Neil, who passed away 5 years ago, Aug. 29.
A bud that the Gardener gave us,
A pure and lovely child
He gave him in our keeping
To cherish undelivered.
But just as it was opening
To the glory of the day,
Down came the Heavenly Gardener
And took our flower away.
Sadly missed by mother and daddy, Mr. and Mrs. Virgil Furlow, and sister, Marcia Rae.

Card of Thanks

McANNALLY—Mrs. Oscar McAnnally and children wish to extend their sincerest thanks and appreciation for the many kindnesses and messages of love and understanding and the beautiful floral offerings from our many friends and neighbors during the illness and death of our husband and father, Oscar McAnnally. May God's richest blessings bless every one of you.
The McAnnally family.

HUSTON—We wish to thank our many friends who were so helpful in every way during the illness and death of our dear wife and dear mother.
J. W. Huston and children.

HANCOCK—We wish to extend our heartfelt thanks and appreciation for acts of kindness, messages of sympathy, and floral offerings from many friends during our bereavement in the death of our father and brother, John C. Hancock. Especially do we thank the Harrisburg Hospital staff, Rev. Harry Hancock, Rev. J. D. McCarty, Gibbons Funeral Home, McKinley Ave. Church, Singers and pallbearers. Children

Drives Blindfolded Through Intersection To Commit Suicide

CHICAGO (CP) — A widow committed suicide by driving blindfolded across an intersection and smashing into a service station, authorities said Wednesday night. Police ruled the death of Mrs. Kathryn Dawson, 52, a suicide. They said a note in her wallet gave instructions for cremation of her body. Witnesses said the woman left a nearby tavern Wednesday and tied a white babushka across her eyes. She drove into an intersection, colliding with a road sign and a traffic light standard before speeding into the station. The victim's husband died last December and she was reported to be despondent over the death, according to police.

Flees Menard Honor Farm, Captured Near Farm 8 Hours Later

MENARD, Ill. (CP) — A convict who walked away from a tomato-picking detail on the Menard State Prison honor farm Tuesday was captured eight hours later only two miles from the farm. Charles Smothers, 35, Marion was scheduled for parole next month. He was sentenced to prison in 1939 on a one-year-to-life term for burglary and larceny. Prison officials said Smothers was wearing a plaid shirt when he was apprehended without resistance by two prison guards on the Missouri-Pacific railroad bridge over the Kaskaskia River.

Whitneys Move to 302 East Poplar

Robert Whitney, real estate broker and auctioneer who has rented his home in Carrier Mills to Mr. and Mrs. Koster, by whom a new factory is being opened there next month, is now fully established in Harrisburg. His real estate office with Don Stout as a salesman associate, is in the Wasson building, and his residence is at 302 East Poplar street. Through his real estate transactions in farm, residential and business property, Mr. Whitney has become widely known in this and adjoining counties. Mr. and Mrs. Whitney have two daughters, one of junior high and the other of grade school age.

Tribune, Sun-Times Boost Prices to 7 Cents

CHICAGO (CP) — The Chicago Sun-Times and the Chicago Tribune today joined the city's two afternoon newspapers in boosting the price of their daily editions from a nickel to seven cents. The Daily News and the Chicago American earlier this week upped their prices to seven cents. The Sun-Times and the Tribune, in an announcement today, said the price increase will go into effect next Monday. The two morning papers blamed higher costs of labor, paper, ink and other production items for the price hike. Nicaragua is a triangular country of 57,143 square miles, or about the size of Illinois.

Frank E. Riley of Elizabethtown Dies

Frank E. Riley, 68, died at his home in Elizabethtown at 1:15 p. m. Wednesday. The body will lie in state at the home of his sister, Mrs. Clarence McDonald in the Peters creek community of Hardin county. The funeral will be held at 2 p. m. Saturday with the Rev. Carl Watkins and the church pastor, Rev. Vernon Wasson, officiating. Burial will be in the Peters Creek cemetery. He is survived by his wife and the sister.

Found Guilty on Shooting Charge

Scott Stone, who chose to stand trial this week after complaints of neighbors that he was shooting on his rifle at the Marietta home, was found guilty in the court of Justice of the Peace Verner E. Joyner. A fine of $16.40 was assessed.

Wants His Job

CHICAGO (CP) — Wayne L. Donahue, 30, postmaster of Huntley in McHenry County and a vice president of the Illinois League of Postmasters, has filed suit in U. S. District Court seeking to set aside his dismissal.

Graham Strengthened By New York Crusade

NEW YORK (CP) — Billy Graham said Wednesday night that he included himself among the 53,207 persons who have officially declared themselves spiritually strengthened by his New York crusade. "I have received revival in my own soul," the evangelist said. "I've been revived myself spiritually by what has happened in New York."

Hunt Train Bandits

INGERSOLL, Ont. (CP) — Police early today released one suspect held for questioning in the $5,000 robbery of the mail car of a Canadian passenger train. Other arrests were expected as police sought the three masked gunmen who pulled the daring holdup Wednesday. The three gunmen, brandishing pistols and working in Jesse James-style, entered the mail car after the train had left Woodstock en route from Toronto to Windsor.

Coroner Says Lightning Killed Man on Tracks

EAST ST. LOUIS, Ill. (CP) — The St. Clair County coroner Wednesday ruled that lightning caused the death of La Pur Horn, whose body was found on a pedestrian's path beside railroad tracks. Police first believed the victim had been struck by a Baltimore & Ohio train, but an autopsy showed death due to electrical shock.

Communists Threaten To Deport Youth Touring Red China

PEIPING (CP) — Communist China threatened today to deport Shelby Tucker of Pass Christian, Miss., one of the American youths touring Red China, for refusing to surrender his passport to the Chinese customs. "I'm in a dilemma," Tucker explained. "I've a choice of violating Chinese law or United States law." He referred to the State Department ban on travel by Americans in Communist China. As a result, while the 41 other Americans touring the mainland were to leave today for Chang Chun in the heavily industrialized northeast, Tucker was packing his bags for an almost certain 5,600-mile trip back to Moscow.
Backs Disarmament
NEW DELHI (CP) — Prime Minister Jawaharlal Nehru told a parliamentary foreign affairs committee Wednesday Soviet production of an intercontinental ballistic missile and the possibility of Western countries manufacturing still more dangerous weapons has made the need for an immediate disarmament agreement imperative.

Raleigh Workers 4-H Leaders Recognized

Tuesday was 4-H Leader Recognition Day for Forrest Jones and Charles Miller, leader and junior leader of the Raleigh Workers 4-H club.
Leader Recognition Day is a program sponsored by Robertson's Farm Supply of East St. Louis. Assisting with the program are Ted Manger of radio station KMOX of St. Louis and district 4-H supervisors.
The program consisted of a tour of the Robertson store, a tour of the radio station, tape recordings of interviews with the leaders and a dinner.
The recordings may be heard over station KMOX Sunday, Sept. 22, at 8:45 a. m.
Mr. Jones and Charles were among ten 4-H leaders from Illinois and Missouri honored Tuesday. Participating in the taped interviews were the 4-H leaders, Jack Yates, Saline County 4-H adviser, district supervisors and Mr. Manger and Charles Vosburgh, representing the sponsor. During the interview each leader was presented a gift and each junior leader a certificate of recognition from the farm supply store.
Also making the trip from Saline county were Mrs. Jones and Mrs. Yates.

Menard Prison Guard Charged Accepting
Cash from Prisoner

CHESTER, Ill. — A Menard State Prison guard has been charged with accepting $3 from a prisoner to carry a letter outside the prison.
The guard, William Byrl Leggans, was held in Randolph County jail here after his arrest Monday night. State's Atty. William Schwelk said Leggans, of Blair in Randolph County, has signed a statement saying he took the letter and money.
Warden Ross Randolph said Leggans had been under surveillance for some time. Randolph said the penalty on conviction in such a case could be a fine up to $500 or a year in county jail or both.

$20,000
Dram Shop
Suit Filed

SHAWNEETOWN, ILLINOIS — The administrator of the estate of a 17-year-old Harrisburg girl who was fatally injured in an auto crash on August 17, 1956, has filed a $20,000 damage suit in Gallatin County circuit court under the Dram Shop Act.
The plaintiff, Thelma Reeder mother of the late Barbara Reeder names Volle G. Bishop, Sr., and Volle G. Bishop, Jr. and Joe Acord, Old Shawneetown tavern owners, defendants.
The complaint alleges that the defendants owned and operated dram shops and taverns in Old Shawneetown on August 17, 1956, and they or their agents sold or gave intoxicating liquor to Dennis Osman, and to others, having reasonable grounds to believe that Dennis Osman would drink part or all of the liquor.
It is further alleged that Osman became intoxicated as a result of drinking said liquor and while intoxicated drove his Pontiac automobile, in which Barbara Reeder was riding, about a mile east of the intersection of State Routes 1 and 13 just west of the B&W coal mine off the highway and into a ditch throwing Barbara Reeder from the auto and fatally injuring her.
The plaintiff states that Barbara Reeder was making substantial contributions toward the support of her mother, brother and two sisters at the time of her death.

FRECKLES AND HIS FRIENDS Desperation BY MERRILL BLOSSER

L'IL ABNER By Al Capp

The story: When Marshal Harney Blanchard and Pike Ambrose watch the railroad station, Cole Jethroe drives into Blue Springs in a buggy. Cole's arrival may set off violence centering on Pete Dorsey, who was kidnapped from Harney's custody.

XVI
The ferry moved away from the south bank, coming back, and I decided I'd better keep away from Nev. Hawk. I veered Pilot west and headed for the ford. Near the water I pulled Pilot down and let him pick his way through the rocks. He knew that ford, didn't like it. On the other bank I spurred him to a good run to make sure I didn't lose Crone. Topping a rise, I saw Crone and the two horses black against the gray sweep of prairie.
When I hit the river bank I stopped and let Crone pull well ahead. There was still room between the road and the river but not enough to suit me. All I wanted was to see where Crone was going. If the moon held, I could do that safer some distance back. There was a black spot on the prairie well to the east of the road. I stared at it for a time and decided it was horse and rider, either not moving or just easing along. I wondered what a rider would be doing over there so late at night. Likely he was thinking the same about me and Birch Crone. I moved out again and started worrying about what I'd do when I hit the Clements' cabins. I considered pulling off to the east of the road. I thought about that rider over there and decided not to. Just too many folks out on the prairie for the middle of the night. It didn't suit me at all.
Pulling out of a dip I saw the buildings on the Clement place. Crone was still 200 yards away from the turnout and I wanted to see what he'd do. If he went past I was wrong. If he turned in I had a chance to be right.
Crone turned into Clements' yard. When I saw him do it I nudged Pilot off the rise and started to move to the road. Then I wheeled him and came back to the rise. I could watch the cabins better from there.
I could see light in one and got down and went inside. I waited for what seemed like a long time before Crone came out and somebody else, too. I couldn't tell who the second one was. They moved around the horse for a time, loading boxes. Then Crone got back on the pinto and pulled out of the yard, trailing the pack horse.
I headed for the road at a good clip and crossed it and angled east until I hit a creek bottom that I knew would take me past the cabins. Pilot was noisy in the rocks on the bottom so I held him up and let him pick his way on sand. I was a half mile closer to the rider off to the east. That made it close enough to be careful. I held Pilot to the creek until I judged we'd passed the cabins. Then I pulled him west up the low bank. Coming out of the bottom, I saw Crone back on the road, moving toward the fork that cut into Buffalo Basin.
I started after Crone. If he planned to go clear to the county

News from the State Capitol

Illinois ranks first in the nation in the number of deaths and second in amount of property damage from tornadoes, according to a report from the Illinois State Water Survey, Department of Registration and Education.

Nine hundred and fourteen deaths and approximately $48,705,680 in property damage from 1916 to 1950 was caused by a total of 184 tornadoes. Tornadoes in Illinois have been particularly destructive because of the density of population.

Rainfall which accompanies tornadoes in Illinois may be heavy, but generally lasts only a short time, according to meteorologists.

Public health officials in Illinois are continuing to watch closely for any mass outbreak of Asiatic influenza in the state. While a few sporadic cases have been investigated, to date no serious outbreaks of the disease have been reported in Illinois.

Dr. Roland R. Cross, state health director, will attend a special meeting of State and Territorial Health Officers in Washington August 27 and 28 to assist in nationwide planning for combating a probable fall epidemic of Asiatic flu.

Plans for combating the disease in Illinois are being made from recommendations of a State Advisory Committee on Asiatic influenza which met recently in Chicago. This committee is working closely with the National Committee on Influenza, the U. S. Public Health Service, and the American Medical Association.

St. Joseph Annual Labor Day Picnic Monday at Ridgway

The 30th annual Labor Day picnic day affair sponsored by members of the Ridgway St. Joseph church will be held as usual on the first Monday in September, this year September 2.

The ladies of the parish work the whole year round preparing for this affair. It has become the big affair of the year. The entire congregation and surrounding communities also participate, and await the affair with anxiety. The ladies prepare by quilting many beautiful quilts for the main prizes of the games. The men and women and young people all chime in to make the homecoming a grand success.

During the months of July and August, the main topic of conversation is the picnic. The people become thoroughly imbued with the spirit of the affair and put forth their best efforts for a grand success.

When it comes out of the tree, rubber sap looks like rich milk. It gets its name "latex" from the Latin word meaning "milk."

Committee Plans Campaign Seminars In Scout Districts

The Steering Committee of the Egyptian Council Boy Scouts of America formulated final plans for campaign seminars in each of its seven districts at a meeting held in Marion this week, according to Dave Flota of Harrisburg.

All community chairmen will learn their specific duties in these training meetings which are a part of the planning activities now going on all over the state in the first Illinois state wide coordinated Boy Scout Campaign. Formal kick-off to the campaign is scheduled for October 13.

District campaign seminars will be held in the Delta, Nile, Obelisk, Pharaoh, Pyramid, Sahara and Sphinx districts during the weeks of Sept. 3 through 13. Representatives of the Egyptian Council Steering Committee will conduct the district training sessions.

Chairman of the State Boy Scout Campaign Committee is Gov. William G. Stratton. Warren Engle, Vice President and head of the Carbonate Branch of the Kroger Company, is General Campaign Chairman of the Egyptian Council for the campaign which will raise funds for the 1938 budget.

Campaigns will not be put on in communities having United Funds, but Scouting personnel is being organized to aid in the United drives.

District Campaign leaders for Sahara district are: District campaign chairman Dave Flota, district Scout committee chairman, T. Leo Dodd, Eldorado.

Lady's Red Leather Purse Makes Fine Incubator for Just-Born Raccoon

By DOC QUIGG
United Press Staff Correspondent
NEW YORK — If you ever have to become foster parent to a just-born raccoon — and the way the world is going, you might as well be prepared for anything — here's a helpful tip.

A red leather lady's purse makes a fine incubator.

Also, a doll's baby bottle is just fine for feeding a wee critter that won't take more than half an ounce at a time. A brand new raccoon, by the way, is not much bigger than a mouse and has to be fed every two hours.

These items of pioneering research were gleaned by Mrs. Mary Cafarelli, of the Bronx, who had a two-hour-old raccoon thrust upon her in an emergency and took it home to raise.

Nothing New For Her
She had had some experience previously in being a mama to wild creatures. She had taken to her home, in succession, a baby starling, a month-old woodchuck, and a two-day-old Chinese water deer.

But none posed the problems of the tiny raccoon, which is now doing fine, thank you, and sporting the name of Daisy Crockett II.

Mrs. Cafarelli is an assistant to the Children's Zoo, a little institution that nestles within the immense confines of New York's famous Bronx Zoo.

The newborn raccoon was found in another part of the zoo, apparently deserted by its mother.

Borrows Pocketbook
Mrs. Cafarelli borrowed a pocketbook — a rather ancient red leather one — from a friend. She put a hot water bottle, wrapped in cloths, inside and put the raccoon cub, well swaddled, on top of the bottle.

She got some doll baby-bottles from her daughter, mixed a formula of half water and half evaporated milk, and was in business.

The Children's Zoo previously had a raccoon named Daisy Crockett, so the new one has been named Daisy II. It is now two months old and will go into the zoo as soon as it gets a little more stature.

State Merit Exams To Be Offered Sept. 1

SPRINGFIELD — The state Department of Personnel today announced that 42 new merit examinations will be offered job seekers starting Sept. 1.

This will bring the total number of exams being given continuously to 265 — the largest number ever offered simultaneously by the state.

The final date to apply for the tests will be Sept. 30, Donald D. McAnis, director of the Personnel Department, reported.

The jobs include a variety of positions. Applications and exam announcements can be obtained from any state employment office, McAnis said.

Kinetic energy is the energy of movement. A moving train, a running horse, a thrown baseball, all exhibit kinetic energy.

IN THE Service

FORT GORDON, Ga. (AHTNC)—Pvt. Marvin B. Horton, son of Mr. and Mrs. Renzo Horton, Route 2, Harrisburg, Ill., recently completed the communications center operation course at the Army's Southeastern Signal School, Fort Gordon, Ga.

The eight-week course trained Horton to receive, process and relay messages by various means of communications.

Horton entered the Army last March and received basic training at Fort Carson, Colo. He is a 1952 graduate of Harrisburg Township high school.

FORT GORDON, Ga. (AHTNC)—Pfc. Jack D. Dale, 20, son of Arthur Dale, Hazel St., Harrisburg, Ill., recently completed the radio teletype operation course at the Army's Southeastern Signal School, Fort Gordon, Ga.

The 15-week course trained him to operate radio transmitting and receiving sets in combination with teletypewriter equipment.

Dale, whose mother, Mrs. Louise Leake, lives on West Raymond St., entered the Army in July, 1956, and completed basic training at Fort Leonard Wood, Mo. He arrived at Fort Gordon for an assignment at Fort Campbell, Ky.

While a civilian, Dale worked for the Sohio Pipeline Company. He was graduated from high school in Harrisburg in 1954.

BERCHTESGADEN, Germany (AHTNC)—Specialist Third Class Gail E. Ballard, 20, son of Robert Ballard, Route 3, Galatia, Ill., recently attended a five-day retreat at the Army's European Religious Retreat House at Berchtesgaden, Germany.

The program included lectures, conferences and special church services.

Specialist Ballard, who has been overseas since April, is regularly assigned to Battery C of the 95th Antiaircraft Artillery Battalion in Mannheim, Germany.

A farmer in civilian life, he entered the Army in September 1955 and completed basic training at Fort Leonard Wood, Mo.

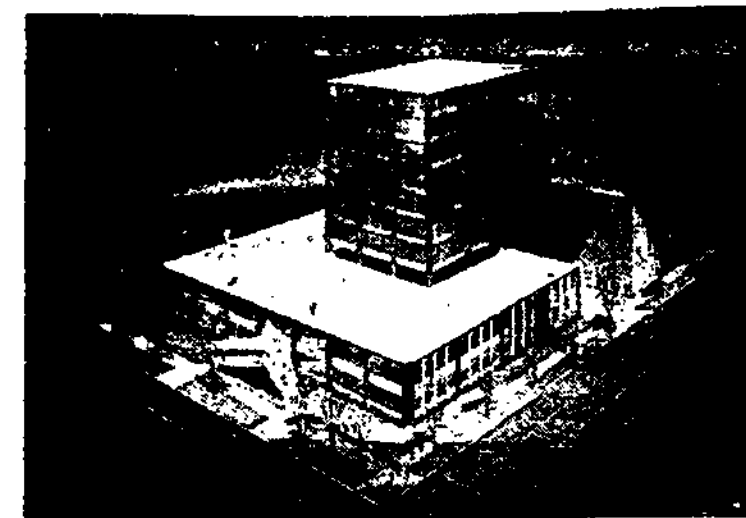

His wife, Nancy, is with him in Germany.

JOHNSON AIR BASE, Japan — With Far East Air Forces near Tokyo, Technical Sergeant William E. Graves, Harrisburg, Ill., recently arrived at Johnson Air Base for assignment with Headquarters Squadron of 41st Air Division.

The wife of the sergeant, Alma, resides at Harrisburg.

During his tour of duty, Sergeant Graves will have many opportunities to travel throughout the central Japan area to acquaint himself with the customs and culture of the people.

Architect's Drawing: New Home Office, Kiwanis International, Chicago, Illinois

Kiwanis International to Construct New Home Office Building in Chicago

Construction of a permanent home office building in Chicago at a cost of nearly a million dollars will begin late this winter, the president of Kiwanis International, H. Park Arnold, Glendale, California, announced recently in Chicago during the organization's late-summer Board meeting.

The new building, which will be headquarters for the international service group, will occupy property at the corner of Rush and Erie streets on Chicago's near north side. The site is one block west of the city's famed "Magnificent Mile," and about five blocks north of the Chicago River. The building will contain approximately 35,000 square feet of floor space in a ground level, a first level, and a second level.

The building will be of modern, light construction, air conditioned throughout. Its exterior will be composed of dark opalescent limestone. The site for the Kiwanis home office was purchased last year when it became evident that the continued enlargement of the service organization and the necessity for an ever-increasing staff was causing Kiwanis to outgrow its present quarters at 520 North Michigan Avenue. Headquarters personnel numbers 125.

Architects for the Kiwanis home office building are Mielke and Smith, of Chicago. Consultant is Leon Chatelain, Washington, D. C. architect, who is president of the American Institute of Architecture.

"Construction of this new building is Kiwanis' declaration of faith in the future of Chicago, of the U. S. and Canada, and the people who have built this organization into a 251,000 man force for good," Arnold said.

Kiwanis, now in its 43rd year, was founded in Detroit, Michigan. The organization has maintained its general offices in Chicago for 38 years.

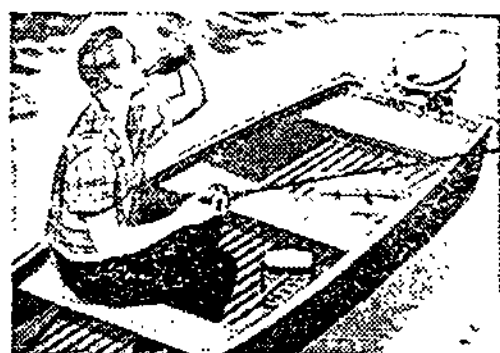

The new home office building will also serve as headquarters for Key Club International, a Kiwanis-sponsored high school boys' service organization numbering 37,000 youngsters in 1700 U. S. and Canadian high schools, and Circle K International, a college level men's service organization with more than 3500 members in 165 college clubs.

Those attending were Mr. and Mrs. George W. Ferrell and granddaughter, Karla Ann Mossman, Mrs. A. C. Pickering, Mrs. Anita Bramlett, Mrs. Gladys Baker and granddaughter, Mrs. Charles Baker, Miss Alma Malin, George McLain and the honor guest, Mrs. Barnett.

Workmen's Compensation Laws Liberalized

CHICAGO 48 — Twenty-three states have liberalized workmen's compensation laws this year, according to Commerce Clearing House, national reporting authority on tax and business law.

The CCH report said several states extended coverage to include a greater number of workers, and generally, benefits to workers who are injured due to on-the-job accidents or disabilities were increased.

The list of occupational diseases for which compensation may be paid was increased in some states, while in others changes were made in administrative procedures.

Seventeen states raised maximum weekly benefits from $2 to $11, the CCH said.

Movie Pyrotechnics

OGDENSBURG, N. Y. — (UP) — Two boys gave the customers a jolt when they set off firecrackers during a movie, "House of the Living Dead." City Judge P. Conroy Murphy took a dim view of the added attraction and fined the youths 10 dollars apiece.

Rev. Morman Asks Council Members Cease Bickering

The Rev. R. J. Morman, pastor of the First Baptist church of Harrisburg, this week wrote a letter to members of the Harrisburg city council urging they stop their bickerings and get down to business.

"I challenge you to be the Christians you should be and act accordingly at your meetings," he wrote.

Rev. Morman's letter in full: "To City Council Harrisburg, Ill.

"Dear Sirs: "Because I am interested in the betterment of Harrisburg I want to write to you concerning my feelings, and doubtless the feelings of many other citizens of our city. Let me first of all say that I am speaking as a private citizen and not as pastor of the First Baptist Church.

"I have read with interest the reports of your last several meetings. Gentlemen, I am truly disappointed in the reports. They read more like something to be expected from children and not from grown men who have been elected to guide our city's progress to a better place in which to live. It seems to me that if a council of learned men cannot choose from two types of parking meters the one that would be best for the money, then that council is unfit to make decisions of greater importance.

"I am sure you men are aware of the need of industry in Harrisburg. It would give employment to the unemployed. Answer this question honestly: if you were planning to bring a plant into Harrisburg and you read of the squabbles as the city council was constantly in and the fist fight at one of the council meetings, would you want to locate here? Gentlemen, you are Harrisburg. You are its people in action for a better city, and I must speak my mind when I say I do not appreciate the way you are representing me in trying to build a better Harrisburg.

"It is my understanding that you all belong to some church of our city. Can it be that the teachings of Christ in how to get along with people have fallen upon deaf ears? We have criticized our United Nations for not inviting God to be present at their meetings. Can it be that you as a council are also leaving Him out of your deliberations. I challenge you to be the Christians you should be and act accordingly at your meetings.

"I am being perfectly honest about my feelings on this matter. If you cannot act in the capacity which you promised, 'forgetting self and thinking about the city and what is best for it,' then I suggest you all resign and turn the task over to men who will. "Yours very sincerely, "R. J. Morman."

Fourth Annual Plowing Contest To Be Saturday

Plans are nearing completion for the fourth annual Gallatin county plowing contest. The big event will be held Saturday on the McCue farm located south of Shawneetown and farmed by H. H. Barlow. This is the same field in which the match was held last year.

Implement dealers of the county will begin demonstrating various new farm implements at about 10:00 a.m. This will be followed by the plowing contest.

Alfred Rister, chairman of the Soil Conservation District, extends an invitation to everyone interested in better farming to attend.

Refreshments will be served by members of the Gallatin County Home Bureau.

Couple Who Left 7 Children in Motel Face Neglect Charges

CLINTON, Iowa (AP)—A couple accused of abandoning seven youngsters in a motel today faced a preliminary hearing on charges of wanton neglect.

Francis Smith, 52, and his new bride, the former Mary Jane Schaefer, 27, both of Fort Wayne, Ind., allegedly told Smith's children they "were going for a ride" and drove away.

The children were found in a De Witt, Iowa, motel Friday, with only $1.30, a loaf of bread and some cheese.

Authorities arrested Smith at Keokuk, Iowa, Tuesday, several hours after he said he and Miss Schaefer were married in Kahoka, Mo. Officials said Smith had triped himself up with a phony story he told his children with them in order to win aid.

Concessions to Reds at Arms Talks Reported

Washington Shows Pessimism Over Agreement Chance

By WILLIAM C. SEXTON United Press Staff Correspondent LONDON (AP)—The Western powers will offer "some" concessions to the Soviets today in an attempt to prevent complete collapse of the London disarmament talks, it was reported.

U. S. delegate Harold E. Stassen is scheduled to formally present the full Western first step and reduction "package" plan when the U. N. disarmament subcommittee meets this afternoon.

American sources said the package includes "some" concessions on nuclear tests, but retains the Western condition linking suspension of tests with an end to production of nuclear weapon material. Russia has been consistently an unconditional end to nuclear weapons tests.

Most of the Western "package" plan already has been submitted orally to Soviet delegate Valerian Zorin, and rejected Zorin's harsh words, coupled with Moscow's claim to have successfully tested an intercontinental ballistic missile, dealt a heavy blow to hopes for an East-West disarmament agreement.

Official quarters in Washington were reported increasingly pessimistic over chances for even a first-step agreement.

Mrs. Laura Jennings Of Rosiclare Dies

Announce Opening Of Raleigh School Tuesday, September 3

Raleigh school will open Tuesday, Sept. 3, and be in session all day, with the cafeteria in operation. Cecil Fulkerson, principal, has announced.

Book rentals, to be paid on the opening day of school, will be $4 for grades 1, 2, 3 and 4 and $6 for grades 5, 6, 7 and 8.

All first and fifth grade pupils are required to have physical and dental examinations, which must be completed before the end of the first week of school.

The building has been redecorated and new maps purchased and pupils riding on the bus driven by Arnold Odle will have a brand new bus this year. Other bus driver is Sam Harris. The drivers will cover the same routes as last year.

Lunches will be 25 cents per meal. School personnel: Edith Cain, teacher grades 1 and 2: Mabel Leonard, teacher grades 3 and 4: Roswell Sisney, teacher grades 5 and 6: Cecil Fulkerson, principal and teacher grades 7 and 8. Elizabeth Rogers and Cora Chaffin are the cooks and Arnold Odle is custodian.

Safety Council Issues Challenge to Drivers CHICAGO (AP)—The National Safety Council today challenged the nation's motorists to make the organization's 420 - traffic death estimate for the Labor Day weekend "ridiculously high."

"We did it on Memorial Day. We did it on the Fourth of July. We can do it again over Labor Day," Council President Nead Dearborn said.

More than 2 Million To Enter Schools in Illinois for 1957 Term SPRINGFIELD (AP)—More than two million school pupils are expected to enroll in Illinois schools for the first time in history as school bells toll for the 1957-58 session.

Education officials today came up with estimates for the school enrollments—elementary and high schools—and reported "there is no end in sight" to climbing enrollment figures.

Many schools will begin their new terms Tuesday, with Labor Day marking the end of the summer vacation. But a good many downstate schools didn't wait until the end of August, with first classes meeting this week.

Tips on Traffic Safety
By CHARLES F. CARPENTIER
Secretary of State

Many motorists cause traffic situations which, in turn, incense them and result in their blaming other drivers for being poor handlers of motor vehicles. One of these is the motorist who does little whatsoever to alleviate traffic tie-ups during rush hour periods.

It is a selfish motorist who squeezes his vehicle for every inch he can make during these periods. His one aim is to get ahead of the other fellow. In doing this he blocks the traffic line.

Such drivers follow as closely as possible the vehicle in front of them. They will travel into the crosswalk after the traffic signal has turned red. By doing so, needless to say, they are accomplishing nothing in their attempt to hasten their trip. However,

Du Quoin Geis Hambletonian Through 1959

Society Pleased With Running of Race This Year

DU QUOIN, Ill. (UP) — The Du Quoin fairgrounds today looked forward to running next year's Hambletonian, an annual trotting stake for 3-year-olds.

The Hambletonian Society Wednesday awarded the southern Illinois fairgrounds an additional year's contract, granting it the Hambletonian through the 1959 race.

It was believed that the society was so pleased with the recent running of the race at Du Quoin that it planned to grant the Du Quoin State Fair a long-term contract.

However, the society accidentally failed to advertise for other bids and thus could only grant a one-year extension of the Du Quoin contract.

Hickory Smoke, driven by Johnny Simpson, won the 1957 Hambletonian by taking three straight heats.

Leslie Casey Named SIU Swim Coach

CARBONDALE, Ill. (UP) — Leslie Casey, 41, head swimming coach at the University of North Carolina for the last six years, has been appointed to a similar post at Southern Illinois University.

Casey's North Carolina team took the Atlantic Coast title with a 10-0 record last year. His overall nine-year college record for dual meets is 75 wins and 14 losses.

CHAMPIONS — The Harrisburg team in the Junior Legion baseball program, carried off all honors in the 24th district, copping the tourney title and also the regular season championship. For the season Harrisburg won 15 games and lost only 4 and in regular Legion scheduled competition the locals had a 132 record, with other losses coming in the 5th Division tournament and at Paducah, in the season's finale. The team was awarded two trophies, which will be displayed at the George Hart Post 167, American Legion, sponsor of the team. Following the completion of the season the team was banqueted by the Legion Post. Kneeling, left to right, John Pickford, Ray Hassett, Darrell Biggs, Mickey Stone, Bob Clark, Gary Aldridge; standing, left to right, Manager Gilbert Maynard, Sgt. Ivey Knowles, Post Athletic Officer, Coach Raymond Pickford, John Vathane, Bob Pavolone, Ronnie Maynard, Donnie Pickford and Bob and Buddy Pool, who purchased the uniforms, making it possible for the team to participate in the Legion baseball program. Absent when picture was made were David Nelson and Harley King. (Daily Register Staff Photo)

TRY TO SMOOTH IT OVER — As International Boxing club head James Norris (seated) looks on, middleweight champion Ray Robinson reads from his contract during a hearing at the State Athletic Commission office in New York. The hearing was called in an effort to iron out differences between Robinson and Norris over conflicting closed-circuit theater and TV arrangements. Robinson has threatened to walk out on his slated Sept. 23rd title fight with Carmen Basilio. (NEA Telephoto)

Stengel Grinning Again; His Yanks Take Second Straight From Contending White Sox

By MILTON RICHMAN
United Press Sports Writer

Casey Stengel's two famous trademarks — the wink and the impish grin — finally were back in place today as he flits a chipper skipper who knows he has just about wrapped up his eighth pennant in nine tries.

The Yankees restored that long absent Stengel grin Wednesday night when they widened their American League lead to a full blown 5 1/2 games by knocking over the amiable Chicago White Sox for the second straight night, 5-4.

Don Larsen was the winner, but the hero was reliever Bob Turley, who was summoned from the bullpen for the second successive night and nailed down the Yankee triumph. Turley first got Larsen out of a jam in the sixth inning, then worked himself out of a bases-loaded situation in the seventh after yielding a two-run homer to Earl Torgerson.

Hank Bauer hammered his 15th homer of the year in the seventh off loser Billy Pierce.

Orioles On Rampage

The Baltimore Orioles staged the biggest offensive in their history to mail the Cleveland Indians, 19-6, while Washington defeated Kansas City, 3-2, and Boston beat Detroit, 1-0, on Ted Williams' 33rd homer of the season.

In the National League, the Dodgers took over second place with a 14-inning, 4-3 triumph over the Cubs; the Giants crushed the Braves, 12-0, slicing their lead to seven games; Cincinnati climbed back into the first division with a 6-5 win over Philadelphia, and Pittsburgh blanked St. Louis, 2-0.

Gus Triandos and Tito Francoana paced the Orioles to their one-sided victory over the Indians; Triandos hitting a pair of homers and driving in five runs while Francoana drove in four runs with four hits.

Pedro Ramos of the Senators fired a four-hitter against Kansas City in registering his 10th triumph.

Williams' homer came in the seventh inning and was one of the two hits allowed by Jim Bunning, who absorbed his seventh loss.

Valo Comes Through

Pinch-hitter Elmer Valo produced Brooklyn's victory over the Cubs with a 14th-inning single off Dave Hillman that scored Randy Jackson from third.

The Giants broke loose for eight runs in the third inning, their biggest rally of the season, in sending Gene Conley of the Braves down to his seventh loss.

Social Brethren Cops III Championship, Win over Baptists

Social Brethren blanked First Baptist, 9 to 0, Wednesday to win the final III league playoff game and the league championship.

Ronnie Hutchison hurled for the winners, scattering six hits while walking two and fanning two. The Social Brethren nine played very good defensive ball, making only one error and executing two double plays, on one of which the center fielder covered second base.

Donnie Hutchison doubled and singled and Bill McKeever singled twice to lead the winners, and Bill Brown, R. Hutchison and Mike Cline had single hits.

Bobby Karnes, losing pitcher, gave up only seven safeties, walked three and struck out four, but his teammates made four errors. Nicky Hicks, Karnes, Richard Wiley, Stephen Maszaros, Sam Potter and Ray Craver had Baptist hits.

Yanks, Chi-Sox Start Bidding of Maglie and Trucks for Final Drive

CHICAGO (UP) — The league-leading New York Yankees and the frantic Chicago White Sox started a bidding contest today for aging pitchers Sal Maglie of Brooklyn and Virgil Trucks of Kansas City as both clubs headed into the pennant stretch drive.

The Yankees, recovering from recent jitters after a late season slump, and the White Sox, within reaching distance of the flag, are both in need of mound help. Maglie is 6-6 and Trucks 8-5 thus far.

Charles Comiskey, youthful vice president of the Chicago club, brought the bargaining contest out of the realm of rumor when he said he was "interested" in obtaining the 40-year-old Maglie.

Paul Waner to Enter T.B. Sanitarium

SARASOTA, Fla. (UP) — Baseball great Paul Waner is expected to enter a sanitarium soon for treatment of tuberculosis.

Waner, a member of the Baseball Hall of Fame and now a batting coach for the Milwaukee Braves, said he was relieved at the diagnosis of tuberculosis made by a Milwaukee physician last Thursday. He said he feared he had cancer.

Martinez Snaps Gomes' Win Streak

BOSTON (UP) — Agile Isidro Martinez of Panama looked forward to a ranking among world featherweights today after slashing his way to a unanimous 10-round decision over Harold Gomes of Providence, R. I.

The dancing Panamanian champion, who weighed in at 129 1/2, snapped a 12-bout victory streak for Gomes Wednesday night at Boston Arena in a nationally televised bout.

Trout Tries Comeback

VANCOUVER, B. C. (UP) — Paul (Dizzy) Trout, trying to make a baseball comeback at the age of 42, feared today that "you can't bring it back." The one-time Detroit Tigers pitcher made his first start for Vancouver of the Pacific Coast League Tuesday night and lost to Los Angeles, 8-6.

Tigers Recall Hurler

DETROIT (UP) — Right-hander Jim Stump, who had a 14-and-11 record for Birmingham of the Southern Association, reported to the parent Detroit Tigers today. The 25-year-old Stump replaced southpaw Al Aber, who went to the Kansas City Athletics on waivers Tuesday.

Furillo Honored

BROOKLYN (UP) — Carl Furillo, veteran Brooklyn Dodger outfielder, still was sorting more than 90 gifts from admirers. His booty from "Carl Furillo Night" included a Cadillac automobile, a Shetland pony for his sons and free haircuts for life.

mons and Jim Hearn for six runs in the second inning and then hung on to edge the Phillies. Wally Post's 17th homer with one on highlighted the rally. Robin Roberts made his first relief appearance since being lifted from the starting rotation and blanked Cincinnati on three hits for 5 1-3 innings. Brooks Lawrence was the winner.

Right-hander Ronnie Kline of the Pirates reeled off his fourth straight win and sixth of the season in holding the Cardinals to six hits.

New Haven, Settled Shortly After 1800, Was Early Trail Crossing

John W. Allen
Southern Illinois University

An early Illinois trail led from Shawneetown on the Ohio toward Vincennes Indiana. It crossed the Little Wabash at the rocky rapids where New Haven now is. Shortly after 1800 settlers began to locate near this river crossing. Among the early arrivals are John Pond, Joseph Boone, Samuel Dagley, Robert Grant, "Paddy" Robinson the Peaces and Trousdale.

John Pond is said to have been the first to open a farm in the community that later became known as the Pond Creek settlement, a name even yet heard occasionally Joseph Boone, a brother of Daniel, selected a site on the south side of the Little Wabash at the rapids. Here he built a palisaded fort, a grist mill powered by a water wheel, and was licensed to operate a ferry. Samuel Dagley, whose sister Boone had married, brought his wife and 15 children to live near the Boones.

First Town Laid Out

Robert Grant laid out the first town of 161 lots, setting aside one lot for a church, another for a school, a third for a mill and a fourth one for a burying ground. Grant also opened a general store that prospered. "Paddy" Robinson became a flatboatman, and noted trader, buying and shipping almost anything salable from the yard at the foot of the rapids. "Paddy" also built an eight room log building as an inn. This building was staunchly built and was intended to double as a fort if such became necessary. It was heated with five large fireplaces.

Another man settling near New Haven was the Rev. R. M. Davis, a

Presbyterian minister, who located about three miles northwest from the village and established Union Ridge Church, which he served 52 years as pastor. It is in the burying ground at this church that the man who served as General Washington's baggage master during the Revolution is buried.

The town of New Haven has passed through several periods of prosperity and adversity. At one time it had two widely known hotels to accomodate travellers, a large sawmill, four saloons, six general stores, a tan yard, a distillery, along with blacksmiths, coopers, gunsmiths, and other pioneer craftsmen. At the height of its prosperity it had five banks and was said to have had more actual cash than any other place in the state. At that time it also was a river port of importance.

Begins Long Decline

When railroads were built, they by-passed New Haven by some miles. River traffic diminished, improved highways were slow to reach the town, and New Haven began a long decline. A new section of the state highway now passes at the edge of the town and crosses the river near the place where Boone's Ferry once was. The large and once busy three story mill and its water wheel are gone. Some bolt holes in the ledge of rock across the stream show where the timbers of the dam were anchored.

The Graddy House and "Paddy's" large eight room log inn and five great fireplaces passed long ago. No part of Boone's Fort remains. Until it was blown down by the wind a few years ago, however, there was one reminder of the days of the fort. That was a large catalpa tree known as the Elizabeth Boone Tree. It had grown from a riding switch that Boone's daughter stuck into the ground near the palisade wall upon her return from a horseback ride. It grew into a great tree. Other large catalpas there now are seedlings of the tree that Elizabeth unwittingly planted.

Scalped by Indians

A few stories of New Haven and earlier days are still related. One of these concerns the Pond family and some Indians. It is briefly told here.

In the fall of 1812 Pond went to help raise a house for a newly arrived settler. Leaving his wife and two small sons at home, he departed in early morning. When he returned at dusk he found his wife, murdered and scalped lying in the home. His two sons had been tomahawked and scalped and were lying against the house by the stick and clay chimney. One was living. The attack evidently occurred in the forenoon after Pond had left home.

Neighbors were notified of the crime. It was learned that three Piankashaw Indians had been seen lurking in the vicinity. The next day, 20 hours or more after the crime, Pond and two of his neighbors named Pearce and Trousdale set out to apprehend the Indians. By observing broken wild pea vines they were able to pick up and follow the trail. When the prairie was reached, the trail was easily followed through the tall grass. Pond and his companions were mounted while the Indians were on foot. This enabled the pursuers to gain upon the fleeing Indians. On the third day signs became fresh and it became evident that they were near the Indians. They were found making a meal from a wild turkey. Pond and his companions crept forward, each selecting an Indian as his target and fired. One of the guns misfired and only two of the Indians were killed. The third escaped and though they hunted all day for him he could not be found. Searching the dead in dians, Pond recovered the scalps of his wife and sons.

The Pond story, however, does not end here. A short time after the tragedy, Pond moved from New Haven to western Missouri with his young son. The son grew to manhood there. Pearce remained at New Haven until he was an old man, when he too decided to move farther west. Passing through Missouri on his journey Pearce stopped to spend the night at a farmer's home. Learning that his visitor earlier had lived at New Haven, Pond, now approaching middle age, asked if Pearce had once known a family there named Pond. Pearce assured him that he had and told the story of the killing and scalping. At the end of the story Pond calmly walked to the mantel, opened the clock and took from it a carefully wrapped package. From it he removed a scalp about the size of a dollar with blond hair. He pointed out the scar on his head where the scalp had been removed.

Incredible as the coincidence may seem, the story is documented and apparently is true.

TWINS, TWINS, AND MORE TWINS—Good things come in pairs for the L. K. Brown family of Midland, Texas. James David and Mark Lee, 30 months, learn the baby-sitting business early by cuddling their new sisters, Beverly Ann and Carolyn Louise, 19 days. Mrs. Brown is a twin. She also has twin cousins and twin aunts.
